"TO MEN OF GOODWILL."

AFTER six war Christmases we approach again a Christmas which, at least by contrast, may be called a Christmas of Peace. Though it is at best an uneasy peace, with turmoil, strife and the echoes of war on all sides, we come to it with thankfulness. It brings us relief from our greater anxieties, and anticipation of the end of separations. There will be reunions—a family Christmas—and expectation of other reunions when the last of our Forces return. There is the knowledge that we work no longer for destruction and the aggravation of war, but for construction and relief of war-caused suffering. But most of all there is renewal of hope. An evil force has been overcome; we have again the opportunity to work positively for the establishment of good.

The atmosphere may not appear favourable; but, paradoxically, that is in itself a favourable sign. We have delusions still, but they are not the delusions that clouded our minds and weakened our hands in 1918. The false expectations of the Millennium in 1918 have been replaced in 1945 by an exaggerated realism. Twenty-seven years ago we thought the end of the war meant the end of all war. And this was to be without any particular effort or sacrifice on our part. The sacrifice of lives, it was believed, had bought for the survivors peace that could be enjoyed carelessly, even riotously. Now few hold such a vain belief. Our problems and difficulties are clearly seen; our strength to overcome them is doubted. It is well that there should be this clear vision of difficulties; but we must beware of doubt—doubt that saps strength and leads to the morass of despair. Properly viewed, a frank perception of problems is the best preparation for their solution. But it must be a constructive and courageous perception. This we have every reason to hold. Endurance has been tempered and tested as never before. From the years of war testing we believe there should emerge a will for peace that is much more than wishful, a will to peace that spells determination. That is the second factor that supports hope. Never before in living memory has there been so great a potential force ready and waiting to be directed to peace-making and peace-keeping.

A third factor that gives strong reason for hope is that the nature of true peace is better known. Some people may still nurse the delusion that relieves them of responsibility, and say that wars are made by rulers, or armament firms or other agencies that act against the will of the people. But the British Prime Minister spoke truth when he declared that an organisation of united nations must be something more than an agreement between Governments. "It must be an expression of the will of the common people in every country." True peace—must be a people's peace; not merely for the people, but made by the people. Rulers may be the instruments through which a declaration of war comes, but rulers in the long run can neither keep peace nor make war unless their people—either actively or through weak neglect of their moral duty—permit it.

It is here that the question becomes intimately personal, and Masonic—for Masonry inculcates principles through persons. We cannot, as Freemasons, come into public affairs and submit a peace plan; but we can strongly affirm and constantly practise the principles that our Craft teaches: the duty of citizens to accept and actively support wise social measures, to broaden the basis of goodwill and understanding between all men, and to regard the discharge of these obligations as a personal responsibility. The truth of this personal obligation is being perceived; we can emphasise it,

Another fact that is also beginning to be perceived—and this gives further reason for hope—is that peace can neither be made nor kept in a vacuum. It must be in close contact with and related to the whole of life; it must be supported by and linked with "the things that make for peace." The fierce judgment of Jehu to Joram's messengers: "What hast thou to do with peace? Turn thee behind me" has its lesson today for those who think that peace can be established and maintained without correction of the evils whence wars spring. And States cannot bring about the correction unless their people will it and work for it. New Zealand cannot deal justly with other countries unless the people of New Zealand are just, unselfish, honest, industrious and charitable. We have fought and overcome the forces of pride, might, tyranny and aggression. We must beware now lest we be overcome—as has often happened in history—by those evils we have vanquished.

Not without reason Paul warned his people: "Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good." It is in this time of peace that our test is to be made—a test of whether we will work and sacrifice to 'establish the conditions that make for peace. For it is only so that the Christmas message and promise has meaning: "On earth peace to men of goodwill."

MASONRY RESTS ON TRUTH.

"If we examine the foundations of Masonry we find that it rests upon the most fundamental of all truths, the first truth and the last, the sovereign and supreme Reality. Upon the threshold of its Lodges every man, whether prince or peasant, is asked to confess his faith in God the Father Almighty, the Architect and Master Builder of the Universe. That is not a mere form of words, but the deepest and most solemn affirmation that human lips can make."—W. Bro. Joseph Gaetano.

The Editor and staff of the "N.Z. Craftsman" return hearty thanks and appreciation for the many kind messages received for the Festive Season. In reciprocating, it is their sincere wish that all readers, contributors, supporters and members of the Craft generally may experience Happiness and Prosperity in the New Year.

NOTICE

TO LODGE SECRETARIES, CORRESPONDENTS AND OTHERS.

In order to assist the Printers to make delivery of the January "Craftsman" it is imperative that Lodge Secretaries and Correspondents post alterations to advertisements and Notes so that they will reach our office not later than Wednesday, the 12th December. Any matter received after that date will be held over for next issue.

PROVINCIAL GRAND MASTERS.

The Board regrets to report the resignations of three Provincial Grand Masters and places on record its sincere appreciation of the services rendered by them and all other Provincial Grand Masters. Special reference is made to the outstanding service given to the Craft by M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson, who has intimated that he wishes to retire from active service as Prov. Grand Master of the Auckland District.

R.W. Bro. Dykes, who has completed four years of service as Provincial Grand Master of Otago District, and R.W. Bro. Baird, who has served in a similar capacity in the Nelson and Marlborough District for a period of two years, have requested permission to retire at the conclusion of the present term.

The Board extends every good wish to these brethren.

PAPAKURA MASONIC BOYS' HOME.

During a portion of the year the home had its full complement of 10 boys, but during the latter portion of the year the mothers of two of the boys desired to resume the care and custody of their respective boys as they considered that their positions had sufficiently improved as to warrant their acceptance of the responsibility for their boys' future maintenance and support. Four other boys will probably be leaving the home before the commencement of next year. The mothers of two of the boys have recently remarried and the committee are of opinion that the boys should return to their respective mothers and stepfathers so that their places in the home may be filled by more deserving cases. The mothers of the other two boys are desirous of resuming their care for the purpose of carrying into effect certain plans which they have formulated for their future. The parents of all the boys who have left or contemplate leaving speak in glowing terms of appreciation of the care and attention which their respective boys have received in the home.

Entertainment of the boys during the year has been provided by many zealous brethren to the great enjoyment of the inmates. Over 250 brethren have visited the home during the year, which visits have greatly impressed the boys as evidence of the interest which is being taken in their welfare. The erection of a new cottage home has not yet, owing to present economic conditions, been proceeded with. Despite these conditions, it does not appear that such erection would be warranted in face of the existing circumstances connected with the home's operations. The committee do not consider that the urgency for a new home is sufficient to warrant its erection when urgent housing requirements for the general community should have priority for all materials and labour available in the near future. A permit, therefore, if granted, would not appear to be fair or justifiable under existing trade conditions and requirements.

The committee record their appreciation of the excellent work rendered by V.W. Bro. L. Tustain and Mrs. Tustain in the management of the home and to their untiring zeal in the training of the boys, who they consider and treat as if they were members of their own family.

KIRKPATRICK MASONIC INSTITUTE.

The chairman of the Board of Governors, W. Bro. W. A. Armstrong, in his annual report for the year ended 31st December, 1944, states that the Institute continues to progress in a satisfactory manner. Commenting on the financial position of the Institute he says, "The Income and Expenditure Account shows a deficit of £37 18s. 5d. after the usual provision by way of Reserve for Depreciation and Renewals of £73 0s. 3d. In view of the fact that the Institute was filled to capacity during the year, and bearing in mind the increased cost in living under nearly every heading, we feel that the result has been comparatively satisfactory. Looking to the future, however, we have to remember that we have been advised recently by the Public Trust Office that the rate of interest on Investments in the Common Fund, from which we draw our income, is being reduced and the consequent loss in income will render it impossible to balance our budget while we are maintaining the Institute at anywhere near full capacity. However, the Board has some reserves, and we have no doubt that if the time comes when we feel that we should appeal to Lodges, the response from the Craft will be entirely satisfactory."

During the year six children were admitted and one child left the Institute, which is being maintained at full capacity. The general health of the girls appears to be satisfactory, the result of the half-yearly medical examination being of a favourable tenor.

The Board intends to give consideration during the year to the question of extensions to the recreation room and the second storey of the home.

NEW ZEALAND LODGE, No. 5175.

Although very little correspondence has passed between, New Zealand Lodge and Grand Lodge during the war years, the Lodge's summonses, which come to hand regularly, indicate that the Lodge is functioning well and is making good progress. Brethren who have returned from the Home Land report that all overseas visitors, and particularly those from New Zealand, are well received and made to feel very much at home.

The Board wishes No. 5175 continued success.

THE WAR AND THE 2nd N.Z.E.F. MASONIC ASSOCIATION.

The Board feels that in expressing thankfulness to T.G.A.O.T.U. for the victorious cessation of the war, it is echoing the thought uppermost in the minds of all Freemasons.

With reference to Grand Lodge's approval of the Board's recommendation in 1939 that the dues of brethren who were accepted for active service with His Majesty's Forces be remitted, the Board now recommends that this concession be discontinued as from 31st December, 1945.

The Board places on record its appreciation of the fraternal hospitality extended to brethren who were overseas with the 2nd New Zealand Expeditionary Force. All returned brethren speak most highly of the warm-hearted reception which was accorded them by Lodges in Cairo and other parts of Egypt. Our brethren have very many happy recollections of their Masonic contacts in the land of the Pharaohs.

NEW LODGES.

Since the presentation of the last report to Grand Lodge, six new Lodges have been constituted—one by M.W. Bro. Teagle, three by the Grand Master, and two by the Pro Grand Master—as follows:—

Waverley Kilwinning, No. 311, Charter members 35, consecrated 13th October, 1944.

Zetland, No. 312, Charter members 56, consecrated 27th March, 1945.

The Services Lodge of Hawkes Bay, No. 313, Charter members 108, consecrated 1st October, 1945.

Howick, No. 314, Charter members 68, consecrated 26th September, 1945.

Te Puni, No. 315, Charter members 70, consecrated 24th September, 1945.

Te Papa, No. 316, Charter members 28, consecrated 28th September, 1945.

MASONIC SCHOLARSHIPS.

In accordance with the decision of Grand Lodge in 1944 to provide scholarships for deserving children of Freemasons, Lodges were invited to nominate suitable candidates. Only three nominations were received by the Scholarship Committee. Of these two were chosen, the third candidate not being eligible as he was over the prescribed age. The successful candidates were Paul Anthony Arthur, nominated by Lodge Maungawhao, No. 168, and Marjorie Tui Kelpie, nominated by Lodge Manawatu Kilwinning, No. 47,

From the splendid reports furnished by the principals of the schools which these pupils are now attending, the committee has good grounds for believing that the opportunity for obtaining further secondary education will be fully appreciated.

The Committee and the Board of General Purposes urge lodges to keep the scholarship scheme in mind, with the object of nominating suitable candidates from time to time.

HOSPITAL VISITING COMMITTEES.

The Board reports that in many districts hospital visiting committees have been firmly established and are carrying out splendid work. In order to encourage those who are engaged in this laudable undertaking, the Board is prepared to recommend that grants be made from time to time by the Board of Benevolence to meet part of the expense incurred by the Committees in providing comforts to those brethren who are laid aside by sickness. During the year, grants were made to three districts in which hospital visiting committees are functioning. The hope is expressed that committees will be organised in all districts.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE.

Unfortunately considerable delay was experienced in transferring Grand Lodge Office Staff to Dunedin from Wellington early in the year, the transaction taking close on five months, but a temporary office under one member eased the position to some extent. After locating suitable office accommodation, three months were occupied in the erection of a strongroom, a necessary protection for our records.

The Board places on record its appreciation of the manner in which all members of the staff stood up to the exceptional inconvenience over such a long period. It is only recently that one family has been able to secure reasonable housing accommodation, and happily all are now more or less satisfactorily provided for in this respect.

It is noted that the cost of transferring the office and staff from Wellington to Dunedin was more than double that of eight years ago, and the future prospects are that the peripatetic system will cost an average of £500 per annum.

During the year the Board took the opportunity to review the salaries of the staff in relation to the general increases that have been authorised under the various awards, and suitable adjustments were made. In this connection the Board considers the Grand Secretary should also be included and therefore recommends that his salary should be increased from £800 to £900 per annum.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.

Dealing with the annual balance sheet, the Grand Treasurer, V.W. Bro. J. C. H. Somerville, referred to the newly-established Masonic Scholarship Fund, and said that the total of accumulated funds invested was £236,000, an increase of £11,938, which must be considered satisfactory. The earning power of the funds had depreciated, and might still have a further downward trend, but the increase in investments would largely offset the reduced earning, as was shown in the total income for the past year. During the coming financial year £6000 would fall due for reinvestment, probably at a lower rate of interest. The Board of General Purposes had taken up 210,000 in the Victory Loan, from two points of view: as an investment, and as a patriotic gesture. The depreciation of the £ in the last few years had had its reflection in the general or working account.

THE BENEVOLENT FUNDS.

In moving the adoption of the report of the Board of Benevolence, the president of the Board, V.W. Bro. J. Bews, drew attention to the fact that disbursements during the year had increased by £141 and that £170 had been made available to hospital visiting committees to provide comforts for sick brethren in hospital. Dealing with the Widows' and Orphans' and Aged Masons' Fund, he said that the total income for the year amounted to £20,050, of which £11,451 represented voluntary contributions received at the hands of Lodges throughout the territory—an increase of £1044 on the previous year. The Board was very pleased with this excellent response, and he thanked the Lodges for their splendid effort. The per capita contribution had been increased from 7/5 to 7/10, which was a sure indication that brethren were showing a practical interest in this most commendable part of the work of the Craft. Four Lodges had made contributions of over 30/- per head, and 109 had reached or exceeded the per capita average of 7/10. All Lodges except one had been able to maintain their previous year's contributions. Continuance of this interest was earnestly hoped for so that the Board might dispense a full measure of succour to those who were finding life's journey somewhat difficult. The Board urged Lodges to take an annual survey of their members and thus assure that no member, widow or orphan was unfavourably placed. Interest on investments had increased by £420, and amounted to £7503. This increased revenue was derived from extra capital employed in investments.

Discussing the widened scope of the Social Security Act now operative, with the benefits increased by about 10/- a week, V.W. Bro. Bews said that this had resulted in further deserving cases being able to qualify for and receive assistance. The increased Social Security benefits would be of considerable help to the aged and sick and also to widows and orphans who were unfavourably placed.

Referring to the Special (War) Benevolent Fund, the president said that nine loans, aggregating £1190, were current as at September 30, 1945. The position of four of these, amounting to £588, however, was unsatisfactory, and they must be considered to be irrecoverable. There was only one way to deal with them—to write them off during the coming year. V.W. Bro. Bews said he looked for a lead from Grand Lodge in the matter.

In conclusion, he commended to all brethren the practice of kindness and brotherly love, which would assuredly result in the furtherance of the benevolent work entrusted to their care.

The reports on the funds were adopted, and after some discussion it was agreed on the suggestion of M.W. Bro. E. C. Smith, who took the chair as the Grand Master was obliged to retire, that the Board be authorised to write off such amounts as in its discretion it thought right and proper,

GENERAL PURPOSES:

The report of the Board of General Purposes was dealt with clause by clause and finally adopted with amendments.

Grand Lodge paid silent tribute to the 49 brethren who passed to their rest during the year under review.

When the recommendations for Past Grand rank were under discussion, V.W. Bro. Arch. Burns, Jun., Past G.Reg., suggested to the Board that in future some slight increase should be made in the number of brethren recommended each year.

The President of the Board of General Purposes, V.W. Bro. C. G. Hedge, moved that a hearty vote of thanks be accorded to the retiring Provincial Grand Masters for their eminent service to Freemasonry.

The work of M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson, the retiring Provincial Grand Master of Auckland, was referred to in turn by R.W. Bro. Girling. P.D.G.M., R.W. Bro. W. W. Wright, P.Pres.B.B., M.W. Bro. C. L. MacDiarmid, P.G.M., and the Grand Master Elect. R.W. Bro. Wright paid a particularly eloquent tribute to Bro. Nicholson's qualities as a man and a Freemason.

The motion was carried.

The Grand Master Elect read a letter from M.W. Bro. Nicholson drawing attention to the fact that V.W. Bro. Norman B. Spencer, P.Pres.G.P., had donated to the Auckland Masonic Temple, Ltd., together with the requisite cabinets, a fine Masonic collection which was one of the most valuable in the British Empire, second only to that held by the Grand Lodge of England, and suggesting its inspection by brethren from the various parts of the Dominion. Grand Lodge passed a motion expressing the appreciation of the brethren assembled of V.W. Bro. Spencer's generous fraternal action.

When the report on the Papakura Boys' Home was under consideration, R.W. Bro. Wright took the opportunity to suggest to secretaries of Lodges which had placed boys in the institution that they show their interest in the boys by writing to them at least twice a year asking them about their progress and whether they were happy in the home.

Alluding to the close of the war, V.W. Bro. Hedge said the Board found it difficult adequately to express the feelings of all brethren that hostilities had ceased and that they could now assist in restoring a chaotic world to peaceful pursuits. The indications were that this was going to be more difficult than the organisation that handled the war, and as Freemasons they must see that the principles of toleration, charity of thought, and truth were applied with double diligence in the immediate future. The Board felt sure that the brethren would agree that the time had now arrived to cease the remission of dues of service brethren.

When Grand Lodge came to deal with the proposal to increase the salary of the Grand Secretary to £900 an amendment to the Board's recommendation was put forward that the amount be increased to £1000, and this was unanimously approved.

The firm of James Brown, of Dunedin, was appointed Grand Lodge auditors for the ensuing year.

AMENDMENTS TO LAWS OF GRAND LODGE.

The Board of General Purposes recommended several amendments to the laws of Grand Lodge.

The first of these was designed to increase the status of Assistant Provincial Grand Master to take place immediately below that of Past Presidents of the Board of Benevolence. The President of the Board said the Board did not see that this meant anything derogatory to the Grand Lecturers, who were thus placed lower in the list. The proposal was approved.

The Board also recommended that 'one Grand Director of Ceremonies be appointed for each province or district in which there were twenty or more Lodges (instead of a total of four), and the removal of the limitation of eight Assistant Grand Directors of Ceremonies. There was some discussion of this motion, and after the luncheon adjournment it was announced that following a consultation the Board had accepted a suggestion that there should be one full G.D.C. for each district with twenty or more Lodges and one Asst. G.D.C. for each district with 35 or more Lodges. This was declared carried on a show of hands. There was then a move for the appointment of a Grand Director of Ceremonies for all districts, irrespective of the number of Lodges, but the Board of General Purposes declined to accept it. On a show of hands being taken, however, the amendment proposed was carried with a majority of seven.

Rule 190 was amended by increasing the fees payable by Lodges to Grand Lodge as follows:—

Registration of a Mason, including Grand Lodge certificate, from 17/6 to RAM.

Duplicate Grand Lodge certificate from 5/- to 10/6.

If Grand Lodge certificate required, additional, from 7/6 to 10/6.

Registration or alteration in name or Title of Lodge from 10/6 to £1/1/-.

Perusing and certifying Bylaws from 10/- to 10/6. Perusing and certifying amendments to Bylaws from 5/- to 10/6.

Every Craft Lodge for each of its members, half-yearly, save as provided in Rule 160a, from 1/9 to 2/-, 3d. of this to be applied to the Masonic Scholarship Fund.

Machinery changes were made in respect to the voting procedure in Grand Lodge.

The Lodge of Otago, No. 7, had entered an appeal against a decision of the Board of General Purposes affecting two candidatures upon the ground that the Board's directions were contrary to the principles of natural and Masonic justice, but with the permission of Grand Lodge this and consequential motions bearing upon it were withdrawn.

The same Lodge proposed that all nominations for Grand Lodge office should be communicated to the Lodges in the province or district from which such nominations emanated, and balloted upon by each Lodge, the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes for each office to be deemed to be elected. The Board of General Purposes opposed the remit, which was lost by an overwhelming majority.

Lodge Arawhaiti, No. 267, proposed that no amendment made to Article V of the Constitution and Laws (relating to the location of Grand Lodge Office) be considered by Grand Lodge unless and until such proposed amendment should have been approved by the individual resolution of not less than three-fifths of the Lodges on the Register of Grand Lodge. The Board of General Purposes regarded the proposal as unworkable, and after some debate it was lost.

INSTALLATION CEREMONY.

The ceremony of installing the Grand Officers for the year was held in the evening in the Auckland Town Hall, which was almost completely filled. A feature of the proceedings was the music, provided by an orchestra and choir under the conductorship of V.W. Bro. T. J. Buchan, with Bro. Trevor Sparling at the grand organ. Bro. F. Campbell was the musical director.

The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Smith, was inducted and invested by M.W. Bro. Sir Cyril Newell, and other principal officers were announced, and installed if present, as follows:—

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

Addressing the assembly, M.W. Bro. Smith said that when, 30 years ago, he crossed the threshold of his mother Lodge, he did not in his widest imaginings dream that he would be called upon to fill the high office of Grand Master of New Zealand. As he spoke, he said, he was stirred by two emotions, of pride and humility. He would not be human if he did not respond to the confidence his brethren had reposed in him in elevating him to rule over and guide their Masonic destinies during the ensuing year. But he would not be fitted for the office if he were not conscious of the dignity and importance of the office and its obligations and responsibilities. That sense of responsibility had been deepened for him by the address of the Installing Grand Master outlining the qualifications of a Grand Master. Frankly, said M.W. Bro. Smith, he knew he should not be able to attain to that high standard of conduct, but as God gave him wisdom and strength he would endeavour to discharge his duties. Like many others, he had joined the Craft prompted by a favourable opinion of the institution and a desire for knowledge. Like them he had remained in it from a sincere wish to be of service to mankind. His contribution would be the gift of such talents as he possessed to the cause of Freemasonry. In the execution of his task he asked for, and knew that he would receive, the cordial and loyal support of the brethren.

M.W. Bro. Smith paid a tribute to the enthusiasm and efficiency with which M.W. Bro. Sir Cyril Newall had carried out the duties of Grand Master, and asked him, on his return to the Old Country, to convey to the people, and particularly the Masonic brethren there, the deep sympathy of the members of the Craft in New Zealand in their trials and a prayer that their sacrifices for a better world might not have been in vain.

In conveying greetings to the brethren of the sister Constitutions overseas, the Grand Master said that the Grand Lodge of New Zealand still remained loyal to the ancient landmarks and had always endeavoured to be true to the best traditions of Freemasonry and to maintain and enforce a high standard of ritual, of ceremony, and of conduct. He conveyed greetings also to the representatives near the Grand Lodge of New Zealand, and made a special appreciative reference to the interest visiting brethren from America had taken in Masonic work in the Dominion and to the contributions they had made to the funds. The hardships of the war had brought men closer together as they had fought for the common cause. Heroism and devotion had not been the exclusive possession of any one race or nation. The cessation of war had left what seemed to be the greater task of restoring the tangled structure of civilisation and of building again the shattered institutions of decent and orderly living and setting up safeguards against another future conflict worse than the ordeal through which the world had just passed. M.W. Bro. Smith referred to an article in the "New York Masonic Outlook," in which W. Bro. John Spargo pointed out the necessity for assisting in the task of rebuilding Masonic altars in many lands and suggested a conference of the English-speaking Grand Lodges to that end. M.W. Bro. Smith said one could appreciate the need for such a conference and expressed the hope that if such a call came it would find a ready and liberal response from the brethren of New Zealand.

Referring to the business session of Grand Lodge, the Grand Master drew attention to the rising tide of enthusiasm for the Craft in New Zealand and urged Masters of Lodges to ensure that only worthy candidates were admitted and that no worthy candidate was denied admission, for every brother who came in was of potential value. He made a special plea for the welfare of maimed soldiers. He also stressed the need for maintaining a high standard of work both in Lodge and in the refectory, and suggested that if Masters found difficulty in carrying out the work of instruction they might form groups of Past Masters for that purpose, so that the brethren might realise the importance and the helpfulness of the Craft and be taught how to serve their fellow men. Let no worthy brother lack assistance. Let Masters so govern their Lodges that they might be homes for the brethren. And to the brethren themselves he would say: assist their W.M. in every way by ready acquiescence in his commands and the decisions of the Lodge.

Speaking of the task of Freemasonry in the immediate future, the Grand Master said there was a call to all institutions, including Freemasonry, so to face the problems of life, which seemed to be growing as time went by, that they might be saved, in the cause of humanity and lasting peace. The G.A.O.T.U. had a plan for the world and expected and asked that we as men should help Him to build the world according to that plan. Freemasonry, indeed civilisation, had stood because deep down in the hearts of men there was a faith that strengthened every effort which gained victory over unrighteousness. The world was as yet but a child in the go-cart. It could only be built according to the divine plan, and as men sought to attain that plan. In conclusion, M.W. Bro. Smith again thanked the brethren for the confidence they had reposed in him and said he would do his best to merit it.

CONNECTICUT, 1945.

129 Lodges, 36,114 members, a gain of 1627.

157th Annual Communication held at Hartford, 7th February, M.W. Ansel A. Packard, Grand Master, presiding.

In the opening remarks of his Address the Grand Master said: "To the end that our deliberations may be successful it is essential for us to lay aside every selfish suggestion and aspiration of personal ambition—sacrificing personal preferences and even cherished opinions that we may go into council pledged to prefer the prosperity of the Order to our little personal satisfactions." It may well be said that such should be the keynote of every Masonic Convention. He also said: "At this time I wish to pay tribute to the Past Grand Masters of this jurisdiction who have individually and collectively done so much to help me throughout my term of office. The age and generation which organised this Grand Lodge have passed into history in honour and in glory. Many of the heads, white with the snows of many winters, which have lent distinction to this station before me have been gathered to their rest, but thanks to the Father of man a remnant of that noble band still repairs to our Temple to offer the sacrific of kindly, loving hearts and matured intellects. With kindest greetings we welcome you, thankful that your counsels are yet spared to us, trusting that your presence will inspire us to maintain and perpetuate that which you have built with such infinite pains. . . .

"The most dangerous period for us is a period of prosperity. Upon us rests the heavy responsibility of making certain that these new members are properly assimilated. They have come to us looking for bread. See ye to it that they are not handed a stone. Ours is the responsibility of conferring the degrees in such a manner as to impress these postulants with their dignity, their beauty, their philosophy, and their power to enrich the lives of men. Ours is the responsibility of seeing to it that the new Brother shall find in the Lodge a sympathetic, cordial atmosphere in which he is welcomed with a degree of personal solicitude that satisfies the craving of his soul for friendly, understanding brotherhood. If we measure up well to that responsibility we shall have been both wise and good Masons and may contemplate with serene confidence the recession of the tide which has always followed its flooding."

One of the outstanding Masonic events of the year occurred at Meriden on Saturday, October 28, when Meriden Lodge No. 77, and Center Lodge No. 97, acted as hosts to the officers of Amity Lodge No. 106, of Shanghai, China, as representatives of the Masonic Brethren among that great people who, for seven years had continued with unfaltering courage the struggle against tremendous odds in defence of their homeland. More than two thousand Connecticut Masons and many distinguished guests from beyond their borders had the privilege of witnessing the exemplification of the Master Mason Degree by the Chinese Brethren under the leadership of Worshipful Joe Woon Lum. The degree exemplification was described as outstanding in its precision and excellence and at its conclusion a banquet was served at the Crystal Ballroom, St. Stanislaus Community Building.

Lodge visiting in Connecticut does not compare with our New Zealand visiting, as may be seen from the following quotation:—"Question 12: Has the Lodge visited another Lodge within a year?

"The Deputies report that as of the date of their visits to the respective Lodges had already made 44 visitations to other Lodges, and plans were made for 68 more such visitations. This type of social and Masonic intercourse should be stimulated and encouraged. New appreciation of Masonry inevitably results therefrom, new friends are made, and each Lodge which participates is strengthened by the experience. Several Lodges report transportation difficulties as the reason for their failure to make or receive such visitations, and they plan to adopt the practice as soon as possible."

The Masonic Charity Foundation reported that there were 76 men and 124 women in the Home, 30 men and 63 women in Hospital, and 13 men, 11 women, 6 boys, and 5 girls under its care "Outside," a grand total of 328.

2089 were initiated during the year, 115 affiliated and 336 reinstated, the losses being 129 demitted, 128 stricken N.P.D., 1 expelled, and 673 died.

The Grand Lodge of Tamaulipas (one of the States of Mexico) was recognised.

A short sketch is given of each of 14 brethren who died for their country.

The 61 pages of concise Reviews by M.W. Bro. Winthrop Buck, include many points from our 1943 Proceedings, opening with these words: "It is too bad that this news from down under will not be read until it is a year and a half old."

M.W. Bro. Buck says of New Zealand's Proceedings, "There is No Review."

Grand Master: M.W. Bro. Henry K. Plumb, Derby.

Grand Secretary: M.W. Bro. Winthrop Buck, P.G.M., Hartford.

Grand Representative of N.Z.: R.W. Bro. Benjamin, S. Cop, Waterbury.

Grand Representative at N.Z.: R.W. Bro. Col. Alfred H. Herbert, P.G.W., Eketahuna.

KANSAS, 1945.

436 Lodges, 68,691 members, a gain of 5007.

89th Annual Communication held at Wichita, 14th February, M.W. Bro. James H. Trice, Grand Master, presiding.

The National Director of War Mobilisation having requested the cancellation of conventions of 50 or more, only 49 were present and only 7 Lodges were officially represented, the others present being Present or Past Grand Officers.

Fifty-year Emblems were presented to 75 brethren.

A Committee on Law Revision prepared a proposed revision of the Laws of the Grand Lodge, and in order to afford Lodges an opportunity of considering the tentative code, it is printed in the Proceedings, of which it occupies 53 pages.

Bro. Rev. Basil L. Johnson supplied the Oration, under the title "The Gates of the Temple," 4894 brethren were raised, 686 admitted, and 1762 restored, as against 785 demitted, 1201 died, 311 suspended, and 1 expelled.

FAREWELL VISIT OF M.W. BRO. SIR CYRIL NEWELL, G.M., TO SOUTHLAND.

The visit of the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Sir Cyril Newell, to the Southland District was an outstanding occasion. The function was held in the Gore Masonic Temple on 27th October, when a special meeting of Lodge Harvey, No. 49, was held in the presence of a record attendance of members and visitors. Every lodge in the district was represented, also several lodges from the Otago Territory. W. Bro. A. H. Davidson, Master, presided and welcomed the visitors, including R.W. Bro. J. D. Campbell, Prov.G.IVI., who in turn received the M.W. Grand Master, also M.W. Bro. E. C. Smith, Pro. G.M. and a large following of Grand Officers. Included in the list of visitors was M.E. Comp. W. Reynolds, First Grand Principal of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of N.Z. It was indeed unique that the chief officers of two important Masonic units should be in attendance at this meeting. A cordial welcome was extended to our distinguished Brethren by R.W. Bra. J. D. Campbell, Prov.G.M. The address by the Grand Master in the Temple was of a most interesting nature, one well calculated to inspire brethren to strive with increased effort for the welfare of the Craft and the world at large. A personal welcome was extended by the Grand Master to each member on retiring from the Temple. The Refectory proceedings were held in the Assembly Hall, Boys' High School, where a pleasant hour was spent around the festive board, where a further talk was given by M.W. Bra. Sir Cyril Newell, followed by several most acceptable items. The meeting was a memorable one in the annals of Masonry in the Southland district.

AN APPRECIATION.

THE LATE W. BRO. JOHN W. TAUNT.

It is not easy to express what one feels concerning the unexpected death of W. Bro. John W. Taunt, the W.M. of Lodge Mt. Egmont, No. 670, E.C., New Plymouth.

Into the great unknown each year pass those brethren who have wrought well in the quarries of life and are ready to present their work for the inspection of the Master Overseer.

W. Bro. Taunt was installed as Master in September, and before the October meeting he was called away, leaving a desolate and sad Lodge. Death had no terrors for such a man as was our loved and revered brother, it was but the transition from a temporal existence to an immortal one. His faith was supreme, his hope sufficient, and his courage endured until the end.

"His was the strength that would not seek

By deed or thought to hurt the weak.

He had delight in simple things

And mirth that had no bitter springs;

And now in peace his sacred ashes rest, fulfilled his day's endeavour.

He blest the earth and he is blest of God and man for ever."

In the death of W. Bro. Taunt we have lost a friend whose genial ways and charming manners endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. We shall miss the influence of his gentle life and unselfish service, but the memory of his words and deeds will continue to rest like a benediction upon those of us who remain.

CONSECRATION OF AUCKLAND MASONIC TEMPLE AND FAREWELL MEETING TO M.W. BRO. OLIVER NICHOLSON.

Probably the largest Masonic gathering which the St. Benedict Street Temple has so far experienced took place on 14th November, when the Ara Lodge, No. 1, acted as host at a meeting which was arranged for the dual purpose of consecrating the Temple and as a farewell to M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson, P.G.M., on the occasion of his retirement from the office of Provincial Grand Master of the Auckland District.

So large a number of brethren attended that many were unable to gain admission. After the ordinary business of the Lodge had been completed (it being the regular meeting of the Ara Lodge) the W.M., W. Bro. E. C. Nimon, received and welcomed the visiting brethren, all Constitutions being represented. The M.W. the Provincial Grand Master was then announced, admitted and assumed control of the Lodge for the purpose of receiving representatives of the Sister Constitutions in the persons of R.W. Bro. D. B. Patterson (District Grand Master, United G.L. of England), R.W. Bro. W. E. Hedditch (Provincial Grand Master, G.L. of Ireland) and R.W. Bro. A. T. Coppard (District Grand Master New Zealand North, G.L. of Scotland). These brethren, who were in each case accompanied by G.L. officers, received and acknowledged the salutations of the brethren. The Prov. G.M. then requested the G.D. of C., V.W. Bro. H. R. A. Vialoux, to retire for the purpose of conducting the reception of M.W. Bro. Maurice Thompson, P.G.M., who then was admitted, accompanied by M.W. Bro. Sir A. L. Herdman, P.G.M., M.W. Bro. C. L. MacDiarmid, P.G.M., M.W. Bro. Sir Stephen Allen, P. Pro G.M., R.W. Bro. A. T. Bullock, Proy.G.M., District of Waikato, and about 90 other Grand Lodge officers, past and present.

On receiving the gavel back from the Provincial G.M., W. Bro. Nimon said:

"Officers and brethren of sister Lodges working under our N.Z. Constitution,—

"It is my very happy privilege on behalf of the Ara Lodge to welcome you to our meeting this evening and to tell you how pleased we are that you have accepted, in such numbers, our invitation to join with us on what, for all members of our Constitution, is a truly important occasion.

"We are delighted to have with us, too, such a distinguished and numerous representation from our sister Lodges owing allegiance to the English, Irish and Scotch Constitutions.

"To you I would say that we take your presence with us this evening as tangible evidence of that true brotherly feeling that should always exist among Freemasons, irrespective of the Constitutions to which they may belong. On behalf of the Ara Lodge, I give you, one and all, the heartiest of welcomes.

"We are meeting here this evening with two objects in view. Firstly, to bid farewell to our Provincial Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother Oliver Nicholson, who, owing to the toll of years, has decided to retire this month from the exalted position he has filled for so long, with such outstanding success.

"In his service to Freemasonry our brother has indeed a wonderful record. M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson was installed in this, the Ara Lodge, in 1894, some 51 years ago. Five years later, in June, 1899, he was elected as Worshipful Master, and held this office from June, 1899, to June, 1900. The following two years he held the office of Grand Registrar—then Senior Grand Warden for one year, and in 1904 he was elected Grand Superintendent—a title later changed to that of Provincial Grand Master—of the Auckland District, a position he has held, but for breaks of three years, ever since.

"During the 40 years M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson has held the high office of Provincial Grand Master in the Auckland Province he has attended many hundreds of Installations and has installed in the chair 1444 Masters.

"The difficulties faced in travel in the early years will no doubt be vividly remembered by many of our senior brethren present here this evening. These duties that were undertaken for so long and so faithfully by our Provincial Grand Master are in themselves a convincing proof of his love for and devotion to Freemasonry.

"Our M.W. Bro. served as Pro Grand Master in 1908, 1909, and again in 1925, while for the years 1916 and 1917 he held the exalted position of Grand Master—the highest honour his brethren could confer upon him.

He has installed no few than six New Zealand Grand Masters, consecrated and dedicated over 50 new Lodges, and has acted as Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of England in New Zealand since 1926. "In addition, to all these Masonic activities, our M.W. Bro. found time to give to the Royal Arch and other branches of Freemasonry.

"At the time M.W. Bro. Nicholson became Grand Superintendent of the Auckland District, the Lodges that came under his supervision numbered 26, by 1934 the number had increased to 81, and at his suggestion the District was then divided. At this time each of the 81 Lodges that had been under his jurisdiction signalled its appreciation of his services by electing him an honorary member—an honour unprecedented, I believe, in the history of Freemasonry.

"Advancing years have now warned our distinguished brother that he must retire from active service, and we have met this evening to tell him how deeply we appreciate what he has done for Freemasonry in New Zealand, how much we grieve that we are to lose his guidance as Prov. Grand Master, but our sorrow is lightened by the hope that rest may materially improve his health and that we look forward to being honoured by at least his occasional attendances at our Lodge meetings.

"Most Worshipful Brother Oliver Nicholson, as Worshipful Master of your mother Lodge, may I express to you on behalf of the Brethren our deepest appreciation and thanks for the great work you have done for Freemasonry, and as an initiate and Past Master of this Lodge we thank you for the honour you have brought to us.

"I have been asked by the Lodges working under the N.Z. Constitution throughout your district to express to you their grateful thanks and appreciation for the work and assistance you have given to all. I have also been asked by the Lodges working under the sister Constitutions to thank you for your generous help and co-operation during the many years you have held this very high position. This evening's gathering, representative of all Constitutions, is to express our affection and respect for you—A TRUE FREEMASON.

"Brethren, with regard to the second object of our meeting this evening, you will remember that on the occasion of our Most Wor. Brother attaining his Masonic Jubilee in May of last year, it was the wish of all Auckland Freemasons working under the N.Z. Constitution that the occasion should be marked by the expression, in some tangible form, of our appreciation for his outstanding work for Freemasonry in this Province over so many years.

"On being asked to give some indication of what he would most appreciate, our M.W. Brother declared it to be his greatest wish that he should be able to consecrate the Temple in the erection of which he had played so great a part. He pointed out that it could not be dedicated until the mortgage was paid off—he therefore desired that any monies raised should be devoted to the paying off of this debt.

"You will remember the appeal then made received ready and generous response from all the brethren and Lodges, but unfortunately the balance owing was large and the objective aimed at failed by some £1500.

"When our Prov. G.M. announced a few months ago that, for health reasons, it was imperative he should resign almost immediately from his high office, it seemed to the officers of this, our M.W. Master's mother Lodge, that a determined effort should be made to wipe off the remaining debt in time to allow him to consecrate this building before vacating his position. The matter was taken up so enthusiastically that rather more than the required amount was raised within a period of a few weeks, and this balance was received by personal donations from the brethren of the city and suburban Lodges working under the N.Z. Constitution, a convincing tribute, I may point out, to the respect and affection in which he is held by his brethren.

"The balance of the mortgage has been paid off—the building may now be consecrated. It is for this further purpose we have met this evening and, M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson, it is my great privilege, as Worshipful Master of this Lodge, to ask you, a little later in the evening, to perform what I know will be to you a labour of love—to consecrate and dedicate this Temple—which in itself is a lasting memorial to you and your outstanding work for Freemasonry in New Zealand."

It is interesting to note that the Foundation Stone of the Temple was laid by M.W. Bro. Nicholson on the 28th September, 1929; it was completed in July, 1930, at a total cost (with furnishings) of £29,490; it was opened on the 8th August, 1930, and consecrated on the 14th November, 1945. The Lodges and their brethren who collectively contributed the funds required to free the Temple of debt, comprise 52 in the Auckland District, 26 in the Waikato District, together with 8 R.A. Chapters, and a number of Lodges of sister Constitutions.

M.W. Bro. Nicholson, who was greatly touched by the tribute paid him by the great gathering, expressed his appreciation of the speaker's remarks, of the presence of the brethren on that occasion, and of the support which had been accorded him during his term of office. He hoped that the efforts he had made would stimulate the brethren to preserve the dignity and ideals of the Craft.

The Worshipful Masters of the following Lodges—Ara, No. 1, St. Andrews, No. 8, United Service, No. 10, Ponsonby, No. 54, Auckland, No. 87, Morningside, No. 228, Arawhaiti, No. 267, Orakei, No. 270, Rongomau, No. 280, Combined Forces, No. 284, Ararangi, No. 297, First Temple, No. 302, and the First Principal of the Auckland Provincial Royal Arch Chapter, No. 9, as the owners of the Temple, then reiterated to the M.W. Provincial G.M. the desire, which they had preferred to the M.W. Grand Master, that their Temple should be consecrated and dedicated for Masonic purposes.

M.W. Bro. Nicholson, announced the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Sir Cyril. Newell, had acceded to their desire and had issued to him a Warrant to act as his Deputy and perform the ceremony, which Warrant by his instruction was read by V.W. Bro. Arch. Burns, Jr., P.G.R. The Consecration ceremony was then conducted by M.W. Bro. Nicholson, V.W. Bro. Rev. A. Mitchell, P.G.C., acting as Grand Chaplain, V.W. Bro. H. R. A. Vialoux performing his duties as G.D. of C., and W. Bro. H. W. Clegg performing his as Grand Organist.

The elements were borne and presented by R.W. Bros. Robert Hay, Walter G. Mason, Wilfred W. Wright, and Frederick G. Alpe, Past Grand Wardens.

After the retirement of Grand Lodge and the visiting District and Provincial Grand Lodges, greetings were extended on behalf of visiting Lodges working under Grand Lodge by W. Bro. M. B. Thorpe, W.M. of Lodge Arawhaiti, No. 267, and the W.Ms. of visiting Lodges of the other Constitutions.

In the refectory the toast of "Grand Lodge" was proposed by W. Bro. Nimon and responded to by M.W. Bro. Nicholson. That of "District and Provincial Grand Lodges" was proposed by M.W. Bro. Sir Stephen Allen, P. Pro G.M., who mentioned particularly the splendid hospitality of English and Scottish, Lodges in Egypt. In their replies R.W. Bros. Patterson, Hedditch, Coppard and Bullock paid tribute to the great work of M.W. Bro. Nicholson.

The toast of "M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson" was proposed in suitable eulogistic terms by V.W. Bro. Hon. E. R. Davis, P.G.T., a life long friend, who referred to the public services of M.W. Bro. Nicholson and to many incidents in his Masonic career. It was mentioned that 50 years ago that night M.W. Bro. Nicholson had, as his proposer, spoken in favour of V.W. Bro. Davis in the Ara Lodge, prior to the ballot being taken for his initiation.

M.W. Bro. Nicholson again thanked the brethren and referred to many incidents, some humorous, of his long term of service, and contrasted the difficulties of travel in the earlier days with the comfort of motor travel today. He was accorded tumultuous applause.

V.W. Bro. H. R. A. Vialoux, G.D. of C., presented to M.W. Bro. Nicholson, as a memento of the occasion, portion of the elements used in the Consecration ceremony, suitably housed.

V.W. Bro. J. A. Gentles, P.G.T., proposed the toast of "The Visitors," and W. Bro. W. N. Kerr, W.M. Ara Lodge, No. 348, I.C., replied.

Musical items by the orchestra of No. 348 and songs by Bro. Edwin Mitchell and W. Bro. Frank Sutherland added to the pleasure of what was undoubtedly one of the most notable Masonic gatherings ever held in Auckland.

It is the prayer of all the brethren that M.W. Bro. Nicholson may be spared to enjoy the leisure that he has so well earned, and to see the Craft enjoying the success to which he contributed so much.

TWENTY-FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

In the space available it is not possible to enter upon a detailed history of the Lodge; nor, indeed, is the present the most fitting time to properly evaluate those eventful years. On the present occasion, however, some brief notes on our history may be of interest generally,

After numerous meetings of the brethren concerned, and the necessary preliminary arrangements, Waimea Lodge was formally constituted on Saturday, 27th September, 1924, in the presence of nearly two hundred brethren, including fifty Installed Masters.

The consecrating officer was M.W. Bro. Hon. Henry L. Michel, Pro Grand Master, whose commission from the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Viscount Jellicoe, of Scapa, is preserved in the Lodge Archives. He was ably assisted in the ceremony by R.W. Bros. R. P. Furness and G. Russell, Prov.G.M.'s of Nelson, Marlborough and Wellington respectively, R.W. Bros. W. W. de Castro, W. Mayes, and R. W. Stiles. P.Prov.G.Ms., G. Barclay, P.G.W., Grand Secretary, V.W. Bro. J. W. P. Dyer, P.G.C., W. Bro. A. G. Shrimpton, as D. of C, and other Past Masters The installation of our first Master, V.W. Bro. Bishop W. C. Sadlier, P.G.C., was conducted by R.W. Bro. R. P. Furness, Prov.G.M., the Master-elect being presented by the Worshipful Masters of Victory Lodge, No. 40, and Murchison Lodge, No. 257.

In the years that have passed the Lodge has made steady progress, and the roll now numbers 99. Naturally enough, we have suffered, the loss of worthy and distinguished brethren. Of the 21 charter members seven are still members of the Lodge, seven have left the district or otherwise ceased membership, and seven have passed to Supreme Grand Lodge above. Their loss has been keenly felt by all. But the foundations were well and truly laid, and their work endures.

Some occasions in Lodge history stand out as noteworthy above all others. Foremost of these, of course, is the day of Consecration and first Installation. Another notable gathering was that of 7th March, 1934, the night of our presentation and farewell to our first Master, V.W. Bro. Sadlier, on the eve of his departure for England, when Grand Lodge Officers, Past Masters and brethren from every part of the province assembled to show their respect and esteem. One of the candidates initiated at this meeting is the Master whom we instal tonight. The year 1933-34 also marked an event which we believe unique in the annals of the Craft, when the Worshipful Masters of Victory, Nelson and Waimea Lodges were all members of the same business firm. On four occasions a Past Master has initiated his own son, the last of these being especially noteworthy, as he was assisted by a fifth, who administered the obligation in the ceremony of initiating their two sons. At another meeting three brothers assisted in the initiation of a fourth. The Annual Ladies' Night has always been a popular function, which this year, after a break due to war conditions, was resumed, appropriately enough, on our twenty-first birthday.

Of the furniture and regalia of the Lodge, much the gift of foundation members, several items are worthy of special mention. The V.S.L. on the Altar was presented by our first Master. In it, on the night of his installation, each successive Master signs his name, the whole forming for all time a permanent and historic record. The small Tracing Boards exhibited at our meetings were painted by a brother in Trentham Military Camp during the First World War, and were used at Masonic gatherings there. The Worshipful Master's gavel was a gift from Trentham brethren to our late W. Bro. J. Williams, P.A.G.D.C., the Grand Lodge representative there, and, together with the Tracing Boards, were presented by him to the Lodge. A silver alms dish is the gift of R.W. Bro. R. P. Furness, to mark his association with our foundation. Many of these gifts, together with others of later date, are suitably inscribed.

As with the Craft in general, the years of war were not without effect on our Lodge. Eight of our brethren have served overseas in this last war, and one. Bro. David Polglase, made the supreme sacrifice. Many more were mobilised for service with the Home Military Forces, and of the remainder most were enrolled either in the Home Guard or the E.P.S.

Now with the cessation of hostilities and the return of our brethren from overseas, we look forward with hope and quiet confidence to the future, and, together with all members of the Craft, to bearing our full share in the reconstruction of the post-war world.

GREAT ARCHITECT, to Thee we raise

A song of gratitude and praise.

And on this Anniversary Day

To Thee our act of homage pay.

We thank Thee for Thy gifts of love

Sent down upon us from above.

Still bless our Lodge we humbly pray,

And smile upon it day by day.

Each Craftsman bless, give him great skill,

Wisely determined to fulfil

The tasks that bring not merely fame,

But honour to Thine own great name.

Help us to do our work aright.

Labouring as always in Thy sight.

With Gavel, Chisel, Compass true,

Faithful and just in all we do.
Teach us the Ashlar first to lay
In its right place, that so we may
Build square and true as Thou hast planned
And work with head and heart and hand.
On strong foundations that shall stand
Though earthquakes shake and rock the land.
Help us, GREAT ARCHITECT, to raise
A Temple glorious to Thy praise.
Teach us, GREAT ARCHITECT, that we Thy LIVING TEMPLES are to be.
To manifest in age and youth
Fraternal Love, Relief, and Truth.

OBITUARY.

W. BRO. WALTER WRIGHT, P.G.D.

Freemasonry in general and H.B. district in particular have suffered a severe loss in the passing of W. Bro. Walter Wright, P.G.D. W. Bro. Wright had a very full and active life in Craft and Capitular Freemasonry. Initiated on 8th October, 1912, he served in all the offices of Lodge Heretaunga, finally being installed W.M. by R.W. Bro. Chadwick on 14th July, 1920. In July, 1922, he was elected Director of Ceremonies, and again for the second occasion in July, 1924, and held that office continually until 1936. He received Grand Lodge rank in 1928 as Junior Grand Deacon. His service to the Royal Arch was equally distinguished, passing through all the chairs and finally reaching the office of 1st Principal of Heretaunga Chapter on 6th April, 1922. He was elected Treasurer in 1924 and held that office continually until his death. Truly a very fine Masonic career. All brethren in the district mourn his passing and will miss his ever-ready advice. To his family is extended our sincere sympathy.

R.W. BRO. J. J. PICKETT, P.D.G.M.

Freemasonry in general and Hawkes Bay in particular has suffered a very sad loss in the death of R.W. Bro. J. J. Pickett, who passed peacefully away on 13th November. Our late brother, with pleasure to himself and to the brethren, gave unstintingly of his time and advice in the very best interests of all branches of Freemasonry, and took a very active part in Capitular and Rose Croix, as well as Craft Lodges, right up to the time of his death. At the age of 92 he persisted in attending rehearsal meetings and invariably took part in all ceremonies of Lodge Haeta, Heretaunga R.A. Chapter, and H.S. Rose Croix Chapter.

Although in failing health, he accompanied the Prov.G.M. to most Installations, acting as S.G.W. His last Masonic appearance was at the Consecration, Dedication and Constitution of The Services Lodge of Hawkes Bay, No. 313, when he assisted the M.W. the G.M. in that ceremony, and afterwards as S.G.W. for the Installation of the W.M. Unfortunately he was unable to attend the banquet held after the ceremony, having to go straight home, but it can truly be said he faithfully and zealously carried out his obligations and Masonic duties to the very last.

His passing will be a very sad loss to the Hawkes Bay District.

A Lodge of Sorrow was held by Lodge Haeata, when the attendance to pay tribute to a beloved brother was undoubtedly a record. The Eulogy in the Temple was given by W. Bro. J. E. Jones, P.G.B.B., who as first W.M. of Lodge Haeata was closely associated with our late R.W. Bro., who was the first Secretary of that Lodge. When the Lodge of Sorrow was adjourned the brethren proceeded to St. Matthew's Church, where the service was conducted by V.W. Bro. the Rev. Drake, P.G.C. At the Cemetery the Masonic burial service was conducted by V.W. Bro. E. E. Bott, G.Chap., assisted by the Prov.G.M. and W. Bro. A. A. Hastings, A.G.D.C. The brethren returned to the Temple to close the Lodge of Sorrow, at which the Prov. G.M., R.W. Bro. E. C. Hurdsfield, paid brief tribute, and so the veil was drawn on the career of a R.W. brother whose life work in Freemasonry will live in the hearts and memories of all who became associated with him.

AUCKLAND NOTES.

The approaching Annual Communication of Grand Lodge is entailing heavy demands on the Executive Committee, but all members are very enthusiastic, and the arrangements are, we understand, well in hand. Auckland members of the Craft are looking forward to the proceedings with considerable anticipation.

On the 25th October the annual Installation Ceremony of Lodge United Masters No. 167 was held at the Temple, St. Benedict's Street, when W. Bro. R. F. Newton laid down the reins of office and W. Bro. W. T. Surman was duly installed as his successor. The ceremony followed the traditional procedure, this being a Research Lodge, and a large number of visitors and Brethren attended. W. Bro. Surman has been a member of the Lodge for many years, and his enthusiasm for the Craft is evidenced by the fact that he travels from his home at Whangarei to take part in the meetings of the Lodge. A full programme of lectures and addresses has been arranged for the coming year by W. Bro. Surman and his officers.

At its regular meeting on the 31st October Lodge United Service had a very large attendance of Brethren, together with many visitors. The occasion was the initiation of a son of one of the oldest members of the Lodge, W. Bro. T. Sauvarin, P.G.S. The candidate was obligated by his father and a very successful meeting was concluded by outstanding refectory proceedings which had been arranged by the W.M. (W. Bro. E. Traves) of Lodge Albion, No. 45, who attended the meeting with some 21 of his brethren.

The annual Convocation of the Akarana R.A. Chapter No. 58 was held on the 1st November, when the G. Supt. installed and invested Ex. Comp. C. J. Ellis as First Principal, Ex. Comp. W. H. R. Teape as Second, and Ex. Comp. A. G. Jones as Third.

The Arawa Conclave of the Order of the Secret Monitor held its annual Installation Ceremony on the 6th September, and Bro. S. C. Richards was installed as S.R. by W. Bro. J. A. Messenger, P.S.R. The Conclave has had a busy and successful year under the charge of W. Bro. T. C. Webster, who concluded his year of office by taking a party to Whangarei, where the Second Degree of the Order was conducted by the Northland Conclave.

On the 30th October Lodge Chevalier No. 303 held its Annual Installation Meeting, when Bro. J. F. Delgarno was installed as W.M. by R.W. Bro. Robert Hay, P.G.W., who officiated in the absence by reason of illness of the Prey. G.M., M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson. There was a large assembly of visitors and Brethren and the Installing Master paid a tribute to the excellent record of work carried out during his year of office by the retiring W.M., W. Bro. J. McLean.

A Traditional Scottish Installation was held on the 7th November at the annual meeting of Lodge Ponsonby No. 708, S.C. Bro. H. F. Garland, J.W., was installed as R.W.M. by W. Bro. D. A. Henderson, who has now terminated two full years as R.W.M. A large attendance of visitors was present and the meeting terminated with the usual toasts in the refectory.

W. Bro. D. McConochie, W.M., of Lodge Maungawhau, No. 168, concluded a busy and successful year of office on the 15th November, when his successor as W.M., Bro. James F. Buckrell, S.W. was installed by the Prov. G.M., M.W. Bro. Oliver Nicholson.

The W.M. of Lodge Takapuna, No. 202, W. Bro. F. E. Sutherland, has been prevailed upon to take a further year's term of office owing to the fact that the W.M. (Bro. R. F. Beird) is seriously ill. On the 19th November W. Bro. Sutherland was duly installed by the Prov. G.M. The greatest sympathy has been expressed to Bro. Beird in his illness, particularly as he is a Freemason of many years' standing and has been unable to assume office as W.M. hitherto by reason of the fact that his occupancy of a senior position in the Civil Service has taken him to many parts of New Zealand.

HAWKES BAY NOTES.

The first regular meeting of Lodge Napier, No. 268, since its Installation was held on 25th October, the W.M., W. Bro. F. W. Fox, presiding. The business was to initiate two candidates, the ceremony being carried out in a most creditable manner. An exceptionally large number of visitors were most hospitably entertained. H.B. Research Lodge, No. 305, held its regular meeting in the Te Mata Lodge Rooms on Monday, 5th November, when W. Bro. W. E. Bate, W.M., presided over a good attendance of members and visitors. The Lecture for the evening was most interesting and instructive.

TARANAKI NOTES.

Taranaki Chapter Rose Croix met in Hawera on 29th October, not a crowded meeting but a very fine one. The candidate was very appreciative of the degree and the tone of the Chapter.

At the November meeting of Lodge Whangamomona, two candidates were passed to the second degree on behalf of Lodge Te Henui. The New Plymouth Lodge turned out well, and the meeting was very enjoyable.

Lodge Hawera paid an official visit to Lodge Taranaki on 15th November.

Lodge Stratford held an emergency meeting on 31st October to raise a son of a popular P.M. Additional interest was given to the meeting by the fact that the father of the candidate gave a graphic account of experiences in the Far East during last war.

At the November meeting of Lodge Kaponga, Lodges Taranaki and Manaia were well represented as "official visitors." These visits do good and greatly encourage the smaller or out-of-the-way Lodges.

Here are two items from the Taranaki monthly notice: "On 1st November an emergency meeting was held to pass two candidates." "Bro. Westwood, of Lodge Ngamotu, was present and gave a very interesting talk on his experiences in Africa, extending over the past seven years. Bro. Westwood is a Hawera boy, and it will be remembered that the late Bro. Westwood was his grandfather."

Lodge Patea Kil. is making preparations for its seventy-fifth anniversary on 12th December. V.W. Bro. F. C. Jannings, P.G.Lec., will give an address on that occasion.

There was a large attendance of members at the October meeting of Lodge Moa. A candidate was initiated by the P.Ms. of the Lodge. Officers and members of Mt. Egmont Lodge, E.C., turned out in good numbers to pay an official visit.

Egmont R.A. Chapter held the November meeting at Stratford when the side degrees were worked. The meeting was a very interesting one.

Frater Allan Orton was installed as Preceptor and Prior of the Preceptory of Taranaki on 27th October. The installing officer was Ven. Frater A. Ferguson, and he was assisted by Ven. Fraters Drury, Diprose, Johnson, Honey-field and Bellringer. In the refectory the newly-installed Preceptor gave a very thoughtful and inspiring address on "The Quest for Truth." With his ability and high ideals, Ven. Frater Orton will well maintain the traditions of the Chapter.

RUAPEHU NOTES.

Ohakea Services Lodge is proving very popular. At the last meeting no less than 15 Lodges were represented, including an official visit by the M.W. and brethren of Lodge Huia.

W. Bro. R. G. Fowlds occupied the chair at the September meeting of Lodge Awatea, the business being the raising of two brethren recently returned from overseas service.

The Secretary, W. Bro. P. W. Morris, P.A.G.D.C., still continues to supply very interesting personal notes on the Lodge circular, and has also organised a Hospital Visiting Committee, who would be pleased to hear from any other Lodge which has members in that institution.

At the October meeting of Lodge Huia, W. Bro. T. P. Hart delivered a very interesting lecture in the refectory. This Lodge holds a very proud record for service of its members in His Majesty's Forces, no less than 10 brethren have returned from overseas. 12 still on active service, 7 in camp in N.Z., whilst two members, Bros. J. Oliver and W. D. McJannett, have made the supreme sacrifice.

The new Master of Lodge Manga-te-Weka, Bro. R. D. T. McRae, was installed last month by W. Bro. T. W. Pairman, P.A.G.D.C. The Prov.G.M., R.W. Bro. J. A. Nash, was present, accompanied by several Grand Lodge officers, and delivered the Address to the Brethren.

W. Bro. M. Hausman, Secretary, is to be congratulated on producing such an interesting monthly circular.

Lodge Waimarino, Raetihi, held its Installation meeting during October, when Bro. A. Paulger was installed by W. Bro. R. B. Davies. A large number of Grand Lodge officers, including R.W. Bro. J. A. Nash, Prov.G.M., were present.

W. Bro. W. A. Churchill, W.M. of Lodge Rongotea, initiated two candidates last month, and found time to take a good number of his brethren on an official visit to Lodge Manchester.

Ruapehu Lodge, presided over by W. Bro. L. Smith, W.M., had a busy meeting last month. Two candidates were initiated and a very enjoyable hour spent in the refectory.

The Manawatu Kil. Lodge, under the direction of W. Bro. G. M. Rennie, W.M., raised two brethren last month.

A unique ceremony took place at Rangitikei recently, when W. Bro. K. L. Vile installed his brother, Bro. L. R. Vile, as W.M. for the ensuing year. The R.W. Prov. G.M., accompanied by officers of Grand Lodge, were present.

R.E. Comp. W. A. Watters, G.Supt., accompanied by Grand Chapter officers, attended the Installation meeting of the Oroua B.A. Chapter on 20th October, the Principals installed being Ex. Comp. C. Pearson, Z.; Ex. Comp. R. Burne, H.; and Ex. Comp D. C. Waugh, J.

Note.—The above notes were received too late for insertion in the November issue.—Ed.

The Installation of United Manawatu Lodge, No. 1721 E.C., was held during October, when W. Bro. T. J. Edwards installed Bro. L. W. Gorman as W.M. Owing to the unavoidable absence of R.W. Bro. J. W. Jack, D.G.M., the address to the brethren was delivered by R.W. Bro. Illot. There was a large attendance, including R.W. Bro. J. A. Nash, Prov.G.M. Ruapehu District, R W. Bro. E. Hurdsfield, Prov.G.M. Hawkes Bay District, and many other Grand Lodge officers of the N.Z. Constitution.

There was an excellent attendance of brethren and visitors at Lodge Awatea's meeting in October, when three candidates were initiated.

A unique ceremony was held under the charter of Lodge Moutoa, Wanganui, presided over by W. Bro. A. R. Guthrie, W.M., the occasion being a Lodge of Thanksgiving to commemorate the termination of World War II and the dawn of peace. Lodge St. Andrew Kilwinning and Lodge Whanganui were associated with Lodge Moutoa for this special occasion. R.W. Bro. W. J. Girling, Deputy G.M., delivered an inspiring address and the roll call of brethren who served overseas was taken by R.W. Bro. J. A. Nash, Prov.G.M. It is interesting to note that each of the three Lodges concerned had eleven members serving in the Armed Forces, and Bro. D. F. P. Jannings, a son of V.W. Bro. F. C. Jannings, P.G.Lec., made the supreme sacrifice.

Lodge Otaihape held its Installation meeting early this month, when the Prov.G.M. installed Bro. A. O. P. Batley as W.M.

Three candidates initiated and four candidates proposed in Manawatu Kilwinning Lodge last month is an indication of the successful year W. Bro. G. M. B. Rennie, W.M., is having.

E. and P. Bro. Edward Bary is the new M.W.S. of the Marama Chapter Rose Croix. The ceremony was carried out during November by VIII. Bro. H. G. Teagle, 33°, assisted by his officers.

At the November meeting of Lodge Te Awahou the Master handed the gavel to W. Bro. S. E. Cowley, G.S., to enable him to "pass" his son (a member of Awatea) and Bro. E. W. Petersen. A very pleasant evening was spent and the visitors were cordially received.

The Manawatu Royal Arch Chapter, under the direction of V.Ex. Comp. E. J. Hicken, advanced two candidates at its November meeting. It is very pleasing to see the great interest that is being taken in Royal Arch Masonry in this district.

These notes, being the last before Christmas, your correspondent wishes to extend to the Editor and staff of the "Craftsman" his thanks for the many kindnesses shown during the past year and to wish them the compliments of the season and a happy and prosperous New Year. Would those Lodge Secretaries who have so kindly forwarded their notices to me please accept my thanks and best wishes for the future.

CHRISTCHURCH NOTES.

At the regular meeting of Civic Lodge, No. 157, on 6th November, a Lecture was given by R.W. Bro. A. B. Christensen, P.Prov.G.M.

With the close of the "Installation Season" at the end of October the rush of Installations in Christchurch has ceased for the time being. The new team of Prov. Grand Officers received a splendid welcome from a very large gathering of brethren at the Annual Communication of Provincial Grand Lodge on 27th October. This meeting marked the completion of the first year of office of the Prov.G.M., R.W. Bro. A. J. Jones. R.W. Bro. Geo. Yemm, Prov. Grand Secretary, was invested for the twenty-fifth successive year.

On 3rd November Lodge Riccarton, No. 276, held an emergency meeting, when the Third Degree was conferred on a member of the Police Force, W. Bro. H. Scott, P.M. of William Ferguson Massey Lodge, Wellington and Superintendent of Police at Christchurch, occupied the Master's chair, and all the offices were filled by brethren of the Police Force, who conducted the entire ceremony, with the exception of one Charge, given by W. Bro. C. D. Marks, the W.M. of Lodge Riccarton. A very happy evening was spent in the refectory, when the toast of the visitors was proposed by W. Bro. H. H. Hanna, P.Prov. G.R., a member of the legal profession and a P.M. of Lodge Riccarton.

There was a large attendance at the regular meeting of the Masters and Pastmasters' Lodge on 21st-November, this being Bro. Guy Calvert's last night in the chair. A paper, "Questions and Answers," was given by V.W. Bro. Dr. Ross Hepburn, who dealt with questions of Masonic interest. These questions and answers have become a valuable feature of the Lodge's work. The total questions answered to date now exceed 200. Many country Lodges use the Questions and Answers, printed in the Transactions, for discussion at their Lodges of Instruction.

The Royal Canterbury Preceptory, No. 246. of Knights Templar held its regular meeting on 22nd November, when the Preceptor, Emt. Kt. James Carter, conducted the ceremony.

We record with sincere regret the recent death of W. Bro. A. D. W. Neate, P.M. and Treasurer of Robert Burns Lodge, No. 139, and of W. Bro. T. W. Wallis, P.G.P. and P.M. of Southern Star Lodge, No. 256.

W. Bro. W. J. H. Walker, P.Prov.G.D.C., and a P.M. of Lodge Cashmere, No. 271, has recently returned to Chrtstchurch after several years as a prisoner of war at Singapore.

The regular meeting of the St. Augustine Cryptic Council was held on 16th November, when the Degrees of Select Master and Super Excellent Master were worked by T. I. Comps. W. Sherrard and J. N. Carson respectively.

Waihora Lodge, No. 141, Leeston, is experiencing an influx of new members, and its Master, W. Bro. T. N. Beckett, has no less than six candidates awaiting their degrees. Waihora Lodge celebrates its 40th anniversary this year and special reference will be made on the occasion of their December meeting, when a number of their oldest members will occupy the chairs. It is interesting to recall that the first Masonic Lodge in Leeston was Ionic, No. 1917, E.C., founded in December, 1879, and surrendering its Charter in 1894.

The Ashley P.Ms.' night was a splendid function. There was a crowded attendance, including the Avon orchestra.

Colin McIntosh, D.C. of Mairaki, has all the officers in splendid shape, and visitors can always rely on a hearty welcome.

The Waimakariri-Hurunui Group send season's greetings to all sister Groups, especially our friends in Marlborough, Nelson and Mid-Canterbury.

Amberley Lodge is doing well under the guidance of W. Bro. Arthur Burke.

All country brethren enjoyed the splendid farewell meeting to our Grand Master, the arrangements were a credit to R.W. Bro. George Yemm and his helpers.

NELSON-MARLBOROUGH NOTES.

The District has learnt with sincere regret that following two years of faultless and untiring service the Prov.G.M., R.W. Bro. James Baird, has decided to retire from this office as at the end of the Masonic year. There have been many expressions of appreciation of his ability, Masonic knowledge, and diplomacy, and we will long remember the period during which we have been under his charge, first as Asst. and then as Prov.G.M., and we extend to R.W. Bro. Baird our sincere thanks and best wishes for the future.

We are gratified to learn that V.W. Bro. Frank Mogridge, at present Asst.Prov.G.M., will by the time these notes appear in print be our R.W.Prov.G.M., and that probably V.T. Bro. R. A. Craighead, P.Asst.G.D.C., will be our V.W. Asst.Prov.G.M., and feel assured that these two worthy brethren, with the assistance of other G.L. officers, past and present, will fully uphold the high traditions firmly established in this Masonic Territory.

The official visits paid by R.W. Bro. Girling, Deputy G.M. to Lodge Golden Bay, E.C., Takaka, and Waimea Lodge, Nelson, on the occasion of their Installations were greatly appreciated. The Deputy G.M. has experienced a strenuous Masonic year and must have created something of a record in official visits to both Lodges and Chapters in both islands. A striking feature of these visits has been the inspiring addresses he has delivered and also his special effort to visit the smaller country Lodges. We are proud to have such an eminent Freemason resident in our Territory, and we extend to R.W. Bro. Girling our congratulations and appreciation upon the completion of another milestone in his distinguished Masonic career.

The 40th Anniversary of St. Cuthberts Lodge, No. 144, took place on Saturday, 20th October, when Bro. J. R. Haldane, S.W., was installed as W.M. by V.W. Bro. F. W. Mogridge, Asst.Prov.G.M. R.W. Bro. J. Baird, Prov.G.M., and R.W. Bro. G. Rudd, P.Prov.G.M., were also in attendance, together with a large gathering of brethren representing all Lodges in the Nelson Territory. The investiture of Bro. W. H. Reed as S.W. and Bro. V. W. Wilkins as J.W. was carried out by W.Bro. R. A. Craighead, P.Asst.G.D.C.

The Installation of Lodge Motueka, No. 117, was held on 24th October, when W. Bro. E. W. Stilwell, who had previously served as Master of the Lodge in 1942-43, was again reinstalled, and all members of the "1942" Masters' Association available rallied round for the occasion. R.W. Bro. Baird presided, with R.W. Bro. Thomson officiating as G.S.W., and W. Bro. Craighead as J.G.W. W. Bro. Cottier, Asst.G.D.C., as usual carried out his duties very efficiently.

Waimea Lodge, No. 266, celebrated its 21st Anniversary at the Installation ceremony on Saturday, 3rd November, when Bro. R. A. Watson, S.W., was installed as W.M.. Bro. B. W. B. Cooper invested as S.W., and Bro. H. A. Weichern as J.W. by the Prov.G.M., assisted by the Deputy G.M. and G.L. officers. A special programme was issued for the occasion, in which is recorded a brief historical review of the Lodge's activities, and Bro. G. A. Edmonds, one of the surviving Charter members, now in his 81st year, submitted some appropriate lines of original Masonic verse. Reference to these is made in the present issue.

Your correspondent takes this opportunity of extending Christmas greetings to all, including "Our Editor," and to the correspondents from other Districts whose notes are read with considerable interest and appreciation.
