POWER AND RESPONSIBILITY.

SYNONYMS are words which have the same meaning as each other. It is said that in any language there are no exact synonyms: usage makes shades of meaning. Power, influence and authority are words which have much the same meaning. The derivations of the words power and authority are not particularly interesting; influence, however, "flowing in," derives from the old astrologers, and means the power flowing in to the individual from the stars. A comparatively modern instance of its use, though in a metaphor, is to be found in Milton's "L' Allegro":

"Towred Cities please us then.
And the busie humm of men,
Where throngs of Knights and Barons bold,
In meeds of Peace high triumphs hold,
With store of Ladies, whose bright eies
Rain influence, and judge the prise
Of Wit, or Arms, while both contend
To win her Grace, whom all commend."

Power today is a comprehensive and general word: it means the actual ability to do things. In authority there is the idea of a commission from some higher source, a commission which specifies the limits within which the authority is to be exercised. Influence is a much more permeating and much less official thing than either power or authority.

The Grand Master has power, probably, to do far more than he has authority to do: that is, until he succeeded in laying the whole Craft by the ears an unworthy Grand Master might issue one unconstitutional dispensation after another, without being called to order for doing so. He has, so to speak, power to exceed his authority.

It is said that the test of whether any of the prerogative power of the British Sovereign still exists is whether or not he can exercise it successfully: such a test was made when Sir Philip Game was Lieut.-Governor of New South Wales.

There is no right without a corresponding duty. The Lief, that an individual has power or is vested with authority makes it incumbent on him to exert his power or to exercise his authority rightly and not wrongly, to the best of his skill and ability.

Any individual may exert influence; we all have some influence, and in general it is more far-reaching than we realise. When we see how our sons and daughters copy our words and actions, when we hear what we have expressed as opinion quoted as fact, we are sometimes brought up with a round turn, to reflect ruefully that we should remember we have been taught to be cautious,

Those who have power and authority are, of course, in a most favourable position for the exercise of influence: the less formal part of what we do and say in our official capacity, though often the more far-reaching.

That is why a high officer of the utmost correctness, one who never makes a mistake, who builds well and guards what has been built by his predecessors, may sometimes be no more than a cold and unbeloved shell; while on the other hand a less efficient but more sympathetic person, with stronger ideals, may by his influence upon those about him find that the work which has been done in his term far exceeds what he has done or even contemplated for himself. His influence has stimulated, fired and encouraged those about him. Influence can thus be a far more potent thing than either power or authority.

It appears, therefore, that the carrying out of duties according to the book of the words is far from being the end of the duty of the incumbent of an office; unless he be a simple registrar of facts or scrutineer of votes recorded. Any office which involves human relations carries with it the duty to leaven the lump of society. The influence of the Craft is the influence of the whole of its members, plus the intangible something which its corporate entity gives it in addition. As we are members one of another, so we exert influence on one another in an interplay which should strengthen and support each one of us until our combined influence upon society is a strong and valuable one.

Society today needs strong influences for good: "Getting and spending we lay waste our lives." We have come to think a great deal more of the duty of the community towards ourselves than of the duty we owe to the community. We need a prophet to flagellate and chastise us.

Humility is an essential characteristic of which we are too often in danger of losing sight. Perhaps our deserts are great, perhaps our deserts are small: in either event it is unworthy to think of nothing but our deserts: and too many of us do that at the expense of thinking how we can help.

If Freemasons will so exert their influence upon society as to help men to be grateful, contented and humble-minded, if they will make it their normal rule to help other people and to practise self-denial, so that the leaven of their conduct goes through the whole of society as an example of right living, then the Craft will be making a tremendous contribution to setting aright times which are sadly out of joint.

WHY MEN FAIL!

CHECK OVER LIST.

There is a cause for everything! Nothing ever "just happens." If a man is promoted to a better job, there is a cause. If a man loses his job, there is also a cause. There are many causes that lead to failure. Here is a list of the most common:-

1. Finding fault with another, but never seeing your own,
2. Doing as little as possible and trying to get as much as possible for it,
3. Spending too much time showing up another's weak points and too little correcting your own.
4. Slandering those we envy or do not like.
5. Procrastination—putting off until tomorrow something that we should have done the day before yesterday.
6. Deceit—talking in a friendly manner to another's face and stabbing him in the back as soon as he turns around.
7. False belief that we are smart enough to reap a harvest of pay before sowing a crop of honest service.
8. Disloyalty to those who have trusted us.
9. Egotism—the belief that we know it all and no one can teach us anything.

Look this list over and check yourself up by it. If none of these causes for failure apply to you, then you are to be congratulated, because you are a success.

VISIT OF LODGE ZETLAND, No. 312, TO LION LODGE, No. 114, AT ORMONDVILLE.

During Labour Day weekend 23 brethren of Lodge Zetland visited Ormondville to pay their annual visit to Lion Lodge, and a very happy and profitable time was spent there. The Wellington brethren took two E.As. with them, who were passed to the F.C. Degree by W. Bro. D. A. Moar, W.M. of Lodge Zetland, assisted by his officers and brethren, among whom were included W. Bro. J. S. Tait, W.M., and W. Bro. Ross Tait, D.M. of Lion Lodge, No. 114, who are charter members of Lodge Zetland.

Prior to the ceremonial work the minutes of the previous visit of Lion Lodge to Wellington were read and confirmed. These were read from the "Register of Fraternal Visits and Brotherly Love," which at each visit paid by the respective Lodges is handed over by the W.M.

of the resident Lodge to the W.M. of the visiting Lodge for safe custody and to have the minutes of the official visit recorded therein. This in time to come will prove a very interesting record of the visits paid to each other by these two Lodges.

The ceremony of "Passing" was carried out in a very impressive manner, and all present were loud in their praise of the beauty and efficient working of the degree.

The refectory proceedings were of an exceptionally happy and enjoyable nature, the members of Lion Lodge and their lady friends having put forth their best efforts to entertain their Wellington visitors in a right royal fashion, which was very much appreciated by the visitors and also by visitors from several adjacent Lodges in the Hawkes Bay district.

During the weekend the Wellington contingent were hospitably entertained at the home of W. Bro. J. S. Tait, W.M. of Lion Lodge, where 26 sat down to lunch, afterwards spending a very happy hour in fraternal intercourse.

Later in the afternoon the Zetland members returned to Wellington, having spent a most enjoyable weekend with their brethren in Hawkes Bay.

FREEMASONS SHOULD BE CHURCHMEN.

Every good Freemason must, of sheer necessity, be a churchman in the religious denomination of his choice. The Church was established by Almighty God, and the Fraternity by His sons. In it we teach dependence on Him and love for each other. We need the Church and the Church needs us. We need its inspiring exposition of the Book which we keep open on our altars. We need its worship as a spiritual help towards peaceful and stable living. If we profess to serve our God, our service is incomplete without individual participation in His Church. That is our first duty as Freemasons. The Church needs Freemasonry, not as an institution, but through the influence and daily presence of its devotees. Tomorrow, with its problems, will soon be today; and one of the first problems the Church must face is that of unity. A single-minded worship of God—without barriers of race or creed. Freemasonry, though divided in form, is united in substance in its attitude towards our Heavenly Father, and Freemasons, more than all other men, can make the greatest contribution towards church unity. It is impossible to conceive of the lasting effect on God's work here on earth if all Freemasons became active churchmen.

THE MAKING OF MASONS.

The making of Masons today should be the making of men, manly men. God-fearing men, honourable men, men who will endeavour to practise the tenets and precepts of Masonry as taught within our sacred retreats. The true Mason today is he who, with faith in God, steps forth to fight the battle of the weak, to help the oppressed, to shield the innocent; one whose greatest pleasure consists in the promulgation of the universal brotherhood of man.—"Masonic Chronicler."

THE SECOND DEGREE.

By R.W. Bro. Ralph F. Newman, P.G.W.

Every Degree in Freemasonry is important—the Second no less than the First and Third. The Fellow Craft Degree may lack the arresting, the intriguing inspiration of the First and the dramatic appeal of the Third, but to the practical mind it conveys such an instructive and useful lesson that it can never be over emphasised.

Pre-eminent in this degree is the working out of the pattern of our lives. In a general way this is done by means of the Working Tools. The S . . . enables us to bring the rude matter into due form—to carve out of the stone, rough and unhewn, the article of perfection which we would all hope our lives to be. If any action of our lives cannot be tested and tried by the S . . . , then it should be cast aside as unfit for use in the building of the structure.

The candidate must be tried to test whether he has learned the lessons of the First Degree, and that he has been industrious, conscientious and honest with his dealings with others; and so properly prepared to be passed to the Second Degree.

A LESSON OF RULE AND ORDER.

In this degree we are especially taught to study the science of geometry, which is said to be the basis of our art. This today may be taken symbolically. Geometry is a science in which care, accuracy and exactness are preeminent. Without these attributes the solution of the problem is unattainable: the answer to the riddle is not forthcoming. And so it is with our Lives. They are governed by rule and order. I have often heard it asked why so many lawyers are keenly interested in Freemasonry. This may be partly answered by saying that ingrained in every keen lawyer is a love of rule and order—a lesson clearly etched in the Second Degree.

SEARCH, DIG AND DELVE.

So sharply is it emphasised that the Almighty is here referred to as the G.G.O.T.U. Note the results of this application to rule and order in the advance from the first to the Second Degree. No longer are we to be satisfied with the more menial tasks of life. We are to search, dig, delve, and in every conceivable way investigate the work of the G.G.O.T.U. and the intricacies of our own particular sphere of activity in that universe. By this means our lives should be a blessing to ourselves and our fellow men, and thus fulfil the great ends for which the G.G. has placed us on earth.

KNOCK, SEEK AND OPEN.

The lesson of the Second Degree is that of stimulation to further action; it inculcates an enthusiasm; it revivifies the desire to find out. Again we are to knock, seek and open.

REWARD CERTAIN FOR THE PATIENT CRAFTSMAN.

And so we should ascend—ever going upward to reach the goal of our deserts. If that path has been the path of Knowledge, the rewards are rich and satisfying. As the staircase winds the end is not seen from the beginning; but the rewards are none the less certain for that craftsman who patiently plods the narrower though highly interesting and inconceivably more satisfying ascent than the broad way which so very easily leads to destruction. That ascent is crowned by the knowledge of God—those Hebrew characters depicted in our Lodges. In closing down in this Degree we are reminded of the sacred symbol, and that it alludes to the G.G.O.T.U. and that so long as we act in conformity of the principles of the Craft, we shall not fail to discharge our duty towards Him with fervency and zeal.—"S.A. Freemason,".

IDEALS.

William Riley Franklin, 32°, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Ideals are the architects of character, the cornerstones of achievement. They are the higher motives that enable us to accomplish great things in business, in science, in affairs of state, and in every branch of human endeavour.

Ideals offer us rational reasons for meeting and solving the problems of life and living, since trouble and obstacles encountered as we press on toward our goal are overcome, as means to an end. Without these visionary incentives to trial and struggle, we are rarely rewarded and life's efforts become colourless and commonplace.

Ideals are the most important things of life, because they enable us to vision and feel security in an expectancy of success. They enable us to enjoy an inner freedom—a richer philosophy. It may be truthfully said that a man attains no more than the aims set by his ideals, for they are the measure of his success. As long as he views only the barrenness of the mesa, he will never see the grandeur of the hills. Just as soon as that same man plans his course by a perception of some finished work, which inspires him to do some greater things, he will suddenly be lifted in mind and spirit from his lowly position and be gloriously carried to heights of loftier achievements.

"Who has not cursed the day of small talk?"

Low aims and shallow thoughts are the real tragedies of life. To rise above the environment of birth should be the natural ambition of everyone, yet, unless the spiritual and cultural items are born and nurtured in the light of Christianity, one is not apt to do so.

If you would accomplish anything in life worth while, and have a measure of happiness, then choose an ideal, be loyal to it, fight for it with an abiding faith, and, in time, the realisation is apt to come. Though it may never come, it matters not. Perhaps it is best that you never fully attain all your ideals; however, you will be a better person because of those ideals, because of the struggle you have made, and, perhaps, somewhere along the way you will have found mansions more beautiful, more satisfying, than anything you might have earlier dreamed of or hoped for, even in your wildest imaginings.

Yes, ideals are the architects of character, the blueprints of your very soul.—"The New Age."

OUR MASONIC DUTY.

The very first duty that an Entered Apprentice acknowledges is to improve himself in Masonry. How many truly and sincerely attempt to discharge that duty? What would be the success of a lawyer who never again looked into a law book after his admission to the bar; a minister of the Gospel who never read the Bible, after his ordination; a doctor who never took up a medical work after securing his sheepskin, or that of any other profession who does not take up post-graduate studies? And yet you find Freemasons all about you pretending to be Masonic lights who never read. Some of them perhaps can glibly repeat certain portions of the ritual, but could not give an intelligent interpretation of the same to save their life. Masonic reading is an essential part of the education of a Freemason and it is never too late to begin, but always better to begin early, It is the duty of the Master to impress this fact upon newly-made Masons, but if they themselves are in the class of non-reading Masons, how can we expect from them wholesome advice?

Before it can be a better world, we have many problems to solve, many responsibilities to meet, many obligations to discharge. These adjustments are not coming from meetings of the Big Five or Big Three; nor from the capitals of the world; nor from the conference table. To be effective they must come from the minds and hearts of men and women who are willing to live their lives according to the Golden Rule."

5685 brethren were raised, 1197 affiliated. 1475 reinstated. 909 demitted, 368 suspended, 925 died, and 106 ceased membership by the surrender of five Charters. Three surrenders were for the purpose of consolidation. There were 61 children in the Masonic Home.

CONNECTICUT-1946,

129 Lodges, 37,896 members—a gain of 1752.

158th Annual Communication held at Hartford. 6th and 7th February, M.W. Bro. Henry K. Plumb. Grand Master, presiding.

In the course of his Address the Grand Master said:—

"Several years ago we adopted a lapel button to recognise 50 years of service. This was a very wise move and has been of real benefit to the Craft. Relatively few men, however, last long enough to rate one of these decorations, and, further, have naturally reached an age at which their activities are curtailed. I believe that if there were set up a 25-year award, in addition to the one we already have, it would result in increased interest among a group of men to whom the Lodge has tended to become an old story. I therefore recommend that a committee be appointed to consider the feasibility of such an award, and to investigate the matter of cost, design, method of financing, and any other pertinent factors."

The proposal was referred to a Committee to report at the next Grand Lodge session.

There were 67 men and 123 women in the Masonic Home at Wallingford, 34 men and 70 women in the Hospital, and 16 men, 10 women, 4 boys and 1 girl being assisted by the Masonic Charity Foundation.

2265 were initiated, 100 affiliated, 326 reinstated, 149 demitted, 123 were stricken from roll, N.P.D., and 673 died. The largest Lodge had 1011 members, the smallest 36. Recognition was extended to the Grand Lodge of Bolivia and the Grand Lodge Alpine of Switzerland.

A Special Committee presented an ably-reasoned seven-page report on the requirements of physical perfection in candidates, and on its recommendation the Connecticut Rule on the subject was altered to read:—"External Qualifications Defined.—The external qualifications are: That he shall be a man, not a eunuch, nor a woman; that he shall be in sound health; and that he shall possess the full enjoyment of all those faculties which give him the ability, with or without artificial aid or substitution of members, to understand, explain or exemplify the requirements of our ritual; and capacity to support himself and his dependants. The Master of any Constituent Lodge may dispense with the exact compliance with the Ritual in the reception of a candidate to such extent as such compliance may be beyond the physical capacity of the candidate to strictly execute."

The Reviews by the Grand Secretary include a brief summary of New Zealand's Proceedings for 1944.

Grand Master: M.W. Bro. Earle K. Haling, Willimantic.
Grand Secretary: M.W. Bro. Winthrop Buck, P.G.M., Hartford.

DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY.

—•—•—•—•—•—
BRO. F. W. C. NEES, BLENHEIM.

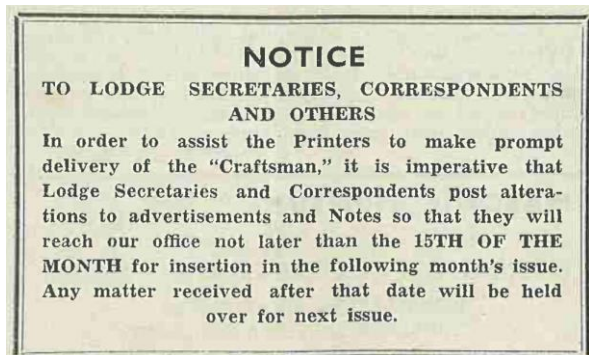

To be a member of a Lodge for sixty years must be a rather unique experience, and there would not be many brethren who could claim this distinction, but such an event has recently been celebrated in Marlborough. Bro. F. W. C. Nees, of the Marlborough Lodge of Unanimity, No. 106, passed his 60th anniversary as a member of this Lodge on the 14th October.

Our brother was initiated into Freemasonry on 14th October, 1886, and has been an active member until a few years ago, when he was compelled to curtail his activities on account of failing health. However, he still takes a keen interest in Lodge affairs, and always appreciates being kept informed of current events. To mark the occasion of his 60th anniversary, the W.M., W. Bro. J. S. Hill, and a party of brethren of No. 106 journeyed to the home of Bro. Nees, and a very happy hour was passed in his company and that of some of the members of his family who had prepared quite a party. There was a cake bearing the inscription "60th Anniversary" and also the united square and compasses. The health of Bro. Nees was proposed by the W.M., and several of the brethren spoke in glowing terms of his long and faithful service to the Craft and to the community generally. Bro. Nees feelingly replied and expressed his appreciation of the visit. His son, Bro. A. H. Nees, also replied to the toast for himself and his two brothers, who also are members of No. 106.

In referring to the service which Bro. F. W. C. Nees has rendered to Craft Freemasonry, it is interesting to note that he has been associated with other branches of the Order for very lengthy periods. He has been a member of the Royal Arch Chapter since May, 1920, and the Rose Croix since February, 1922, and has held the office of Preceptor in the Knights Templar, of which he has been a member from 1928.

We trust that our brother may be spared many years to enjoy the pleasure of his Masonic friendships.

AN ERRING BROTHER.

Next to the word Mother, no word in our language has more meaning and music than the word Brother. It is from above, and it reaches to the deep places of the heart. It is religion, on its human side; and in it lies the hope of humanity, the highest dream of the prophets is of a time when men shall be Brothers.

When used Masonically the word Brother has a depth and tenderness all its own, unique and beautiful beyond words. It tells of a tie, mystical but mighty, which Masonry spins and weaves between man and man, which no one can define and few can resist. In time of sorrow it is a tether of sympathy and a link of loyalty.

Of course, like all other words, it is common enough, and may be glibly used without regard to its real meaning. Like the word of God, it may be a coin worn smooth, or a flower faded. But when its meaning is actually and fully felt, no other word is needed among us, except on occasions of high Masonic ceremony, when we add the word Worshipful; or some other term of title or rank.

No other word has a finer import or a more ample echo, expressive of the highest relationship in which dignity and devotion unite. If we are really Brothers, all the rest may go by the board, save for sake of ceremony. If we are not truly Brothers, all titles are empty and of no avail. For that reason, to omit the word Brother, when speaking Masonically, is not only a lack of courtesy, but shows a want of fineness of feeling.

What does the word Brother mean, Masonically? It means the adoption of a man into an inner circle of friendship, by a moral and spiritual tie as close and binding as the tie of common birth and blood between two brothers in a family. Nothing else, nothing less; and this implies a different attitude the one to the other related not distant, united not opposed, natural and unrestrained—wherein are revealed what the old writers used to call "the happy and beneficial effects of our Ancient and Honourable Institution."

Since this is so, surely we ought to exercise as much caution and judgment in bringing a new member into the Lodge as we do in inviting an outsider into the family circle. Carelessness here is the cause of most of our Masonic ills, frictions and griefs. Unless we are assured beyond all reasonable doubt that a man is a brotherly man to whom Masonry will appeal, and who will justify our choice, we ought not to propose his name or admit him to our fellowship.

Still, no man is perfect; and the Lodge is a moral worship in which the rough Ashlar is to be polished for use and beauty. If the Lodge had been too exacting, none of us would have gained admission. At best we must live together in the Lodge, as elsewhere, by Faith, Hope and Charity, else Masonry will be a failure. The Brotherly Life may be difficult, but it is none the less needful. Our faith in another may be repelled. or even shattered what then?

Nothing in Life is sadder than the pitiful moral breakdowns of good men, their blunders and brutalities. Who knows his own heart, or what he might do under terrible trial or temptation? Often enough qualities appear or emerge, of which neither the man himself nor his friends were aware, and there is a moral wreck. Some "defect of will or taint of blood," some hidden yellow streak, some dark sin shows itself. and there is disaster. A man highly respected and deeply loved goes down suddenly, like a tree in a storm, and we discover under the smooth bark that the inside was rotten. What shall we do?

Of course, in cases of awful crime, the way is plain, but we have in mind the erring brother who does injury to himself, his Brother, or the Lodge. An old Stoic teacher gave a good rule, showing us that much depends on the handle with which we take hold of the matter. If we say, "My brother has injured me," it will mean one thing. If we say, "My Brother has injured me," it will mean another; and that is what the Brotherly life means, if it means anything.

Every Master of a Lodge knows how often he is asked to arraign a Brother, try him, and expel him from the Fraternity. It is easy to be angry, and equally easy to be unjust. If he is a wise Master, he will make haste slowly. There is need of tact, patience, and, above all, sympathy—since all men are a little weak and a little strong, a little good and a little bad, and anyone may lose his way, befogged by passion or bewitched by evil. It is a joy to record that Masons, for the most part, are both gentle and wise in dealing with a Brother who has stumbled along the way. Masonic charity is not a myth; it is one of the finest things on earth.

What shall we do? If we see a Brother going wrong in Masonry, or in anything else—"spoiling his work," as the old Masons used to say—well, we must take him aside and talk to him gently, man to man, Brother to Brother, and show him the right way. He may be ignorant, weak, or even ugly of spirit—driven by some blind devil, as all of us are apt to be—and, if so, our tact and Brotherly kindness may be tested and tried—but more often than otherwise, we can win him back to sanity.

Have you heard a tale about a Brother—a suggestion of a doubt, an innuendo about his character, some hearsay story not to his credit? If so, did you stand up for him, ask for proof, or invite suspension of judgment until, the facts could be heard, remembering that it is your duty, as a Mason, to defend your Brother in his absence? Such things are seldom said in his presence. Is it not fair to tell him what is being said and learn his side of the tale? If we fail in our duty in such matters, we fail of being a true Brother.

When we have learned the truth and have to face the worst, what then? Long ago we knew an old Mason, long since gone to the Great Lodge, who was chided by a Brother for continuing to trust a man they both knew was taking advantage of the kindness' shown him. The old man replied: "Yes, but you never know; I may touch the right chord in his heart yet. He is not wholly bad; some day, perhaps when I am dead and gone, he will hear the music and remember." And he did.

Hear the music? Ah, if we would hear it we must listen and wait, after we have touched the right chord." And if the right chord is in us, something in him will respond, if he be not utterly dead of soul! If he does respond, then you will have gained a friend who will stick closer than a Brother. If he does not respond—and, alas, sometimes he does not—then we must admit, with a heart bowed down, that we have done our best, and failed. Some inherent failing, some blind spot, has led him astray, dividing him from us by a gulf we cannot bridge.

So a Mason should treat his Brother who goes astray. Not with bitterness, nor yet with good-natured easiness, nor with worldly indifference, nor with philosophic coldness; but with pity, patience and loving kindness. A moral collapse is a sickness, a loss, dishonour in the immortal part of man. It is the darkest disaster, worse than death, adding misery to guilt. We must deal faithfully but tenderly, firmly but patiently, with such tragedies.

It is facts such as these which show us what Charity, in a far deeper sense than monetary gifts, really means. It is as delicate as it is difficult, in that we are all men of like passions and temptations. We all have that within us which, by a twist of perversion, might lead to awful ends. Perhaps we have done acts which, in proportion to the provocation, are less excusable than those of a Brother who grieves us by his sin. "Judge not, lest ye yourselves be judged."

Truly it was a wise saying, not less true today than when the old Greek uttered it long ago. "Know thyself." Because we do not know ourselves, it behoves us to put ourselves under the spell of all the influences God is using for the making of them, among which the Spirit of Masonry is one of the gentlest, wisest, and most benign. If we let it have its way with us it will build us up in virtue, honour and charity, softening what is hard and strengthening what is weak.

If an erring Brother must be condemned, he must also be deeply pitied. God pities him; Christ died for him: Heaven waits to welcome him back with joy. He has done himself a far deeper injury than he has done anyone else. THE TWO GREAT PILLARS.

M.W. Bro. J. G. Brown, of British Columbia, made some interesting remarks on these pillars at a recent Communication:—"At the porchway or entrance to the Temple of King Solomon stood two great pillars. With their separate and conjoint significance as Freemasons view them, the brethren are all familiar. I am going to give them new names, and let them stand at the entrance to a new world, and they shall signify to us great principles without which we have no hope for stability or security for human life, or human society. The name of the one shall be 'The Manhood of the Brother,' and the name of the other shall be 'The Brotherhood of Man.' The one stands for the highest realisation of the individual personality: the other for the true utopia of human society. The one is the symbol of what we may call the self-regarding virtues, the perfection of the individual; the other, the perfection of human society, the other-regarding or altruistic virtues. Both are essential focal points of human thought. We must seek to develop both of these interests without subordinating one to the other. A new world we must have. Better social conditions are the imperative duty of the hour, but let us be assured of this, that we cannot build a golden age out of men with leaden instincts. Unless our personal motives and purposes, our emotions, and passions, our aims and ambitions, are purified, and cleansed, and made worthy of the exalted dignity of man, we are but grovelling creatures, and will be found invariably forcing down the social conditions to meet our own selfishness and greed. Well can the prayer of every man of us be that of the Psalmist of old, 'Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.'" —

TARANAKI NOTES.

The members of Lodge Moa, No. 110, Inglewood, are busily preparing for the celebration of the Lodge Jubilee, to be held shortly. At their last meeting they had a large number of visitors, including the W.M., officers and brethren of Te Henui and Sir Donald McLean, E.C. Waitara Lodges were present in strength. Three candidates were proposed.

The ceremonial work in Lodge Hawera at its last meeting was an initiation. There was one 1st notice, two 2nd notices and ballot, and three E.As. are awaiting passing. This Lodge recently held a very pleasant and successful Ladies' Evening in the "Bon Ton" Tea Rooms.

Lodge Ngamotu initiated two candidates at their recent meeting. They also have four waiting initiation, as well as two F.Cs. for "Raising."

Lodge Kaponga at the October meeting "Passed" a brother and balloted for another candidate.

Lodge Te Henui as usual has a very full agenda, and plenty of work offering.

Stratford Lodge, too, has a very full list of work ahead. At the last meeting two brethren were "Passed" and five candidates are awaiting initiation.

Lodge Ikaroa at the October meeting worked a Third Degree. The election of W. Master and officers was also carried out. The Ikaroa installation was the last for the year in Taranaki.

The Opunake R.A. Chapter paid a visit to Egmont (Stratford) Chapter recently and brought a candidate with them. At their own meeting, three days later, they acknowledged two others.

Lodge Hinemoa. S.C.. held their Installation meeting during Labour week-end, when Bro. Duncan. S.W., was installed as R.W.M. There was a record attendance. In the refectory, when responding to the toast of "W.M. and Officers," the newly-installed Master urged the members of his Lodge to take advantage of the "rising tide in Masonry and do their utmost to help the Lodge along."

RUAPEHU NOTES.

The ceremony of installing Bro. A. D. Young as W.M. of Rangitikei Lodge, No. 38, was performed by R.W. Bro. J. A. Nash. Prov.G.M., assisted by several Grand Lodge officers. There was an excellent attendance and the usual hearty welcome was extended to the visitors.

On 5th November Bro. W. N. Anderson was installed as W.M. of Lodge Otaihape. No. 142, by the Prov.G.M., who also delivered the Address to the W.M. The Wardens were invested by V.W. Bro. W. H. Sandford. G.Lect.. and addressed by W. Bro. T. Pairman, P.A.G.D.C., and the brethren addressed by W. Bro. P. W. Morris, P.A.G.D.C.

The Installation meeting of the Marama Chapter Rose Croix was held on 9th November. The ceremony of installing E. and P. Bro. Len. Wood as M.W.S. was conducted by V. Ill. Bro. H. G. Teagle. 33°, assisted by Ill. Bros. F. J. Rea and H. Hatch. 32°, T. R. Lees, 31° and W. W. Coutts and G. G. Priest, 30°. The attendance was exceedingly large, several sister Chapters being represented. The members suitably entertained the visitors in the refectory after the ceremony.

W. Bro. J. Mennie. W.M. of Fending Lodge. No. 41, is holding emergency meetings, and he is being well supported by his brethren. Masonry is flourishing in this district and many excellent candidates are coming forward.

All arrangements are well in hand for the big "Maori Night" to be held by the Ohakea Services Lodge in November, when all the offices will be occupied by members of the native race, and the candidate, too, being a Maori will add interest to the occasion.

The Manawatu Kil. Lodge members are being kept busy visiting and receiving visitors and conducting degree work, W. Bro. W. E. Anderson. W.M. being ably assisted by that most efficient of Secretaries. W. Bro. D. F. Smillie.

These notes, the last for 1946. would not be complete without wishing the staff of the "Craftsman" the compliments of the season and a sincere wish for a bright and happy future for them. Your correspondent also desires to thank Lodge Secretaries for sending in their monthly notices and to wish them, too, many years of happiness and prosperity.

SOUTHLAND NOTES.

The visit of the Deputy G.M., R.W. Bro. E. J. Guinness, to the November meeting of Lodge Southern Cross. No. 9. was one of the outstanding events of the past month. There was a good attendance of members and visitors, including R.W. Bro. J. D. Campbell. Prov.G.M., and a number of Grand officers. W. Bro. D. T. Miller W.M., and his officers conducted two candidates through the Third Degree in a very impressive manner. At the refectory proceedings a hearty welcome was accorded by R.W. Bro. A. Derby, P.Prov.G.M., on behalf of the Southland District, in R.W. Bro. E. J. Guinness, who, in his reply, delighted all present with a most inspiring and instructive address.

During the afternoon our distinguished brother, in company with the Prov.G.M., made an informal visit to Lodge Aparima, No. 77, and met a good number of members in the Riverton Temple.

On 6th November a special meeting was arranged by Southern Cross Royal Arch Chapter, No. 3, to welcome M.E. Comp. J. A. Stables, G.Z., who was paying his official visit to the Southland Territory. There was a large attendance, including the 1st Principal and several Companions of Wallace R.A. Chapter. No. 34. R.E. Comp. F. N. Kerr, G.Supt, of the Canterbury District, was also in attendance. The ceremonial work of the evening, that of the Mark Degree, was conducted in a most impressive manner by W. Mark Master Geo. F. Hoffman and his officers. Several Chair Certificates and Royal Arch Diplomas were presented by our distinguished visitors. On retiring to the refectory a very enjoyable hour was spent, when a most interesting talk was given by the G.Z. on matters connected with Grand Chapter and its activities.

E. and P. Bro. A. F. R. Crawford, M.W.S., and officers of Murihiku Rose Croix Chapter, No. 36, worked a very successful Ceremony of Perfection at the quarterly meeting on 30th October. A feature of the refectory proceedings was the floral decorations arranged by E. and P. Bro. A. W. G. McKee, who is continuing the good work done by E. and P. Bro. F. A. Steans over a long period of years.

The installation of Master and the investiture of officers of Lodge Winton, No. 108, was held in the Winton Temple on 5th November in the presence of an excellent attendance of members and visitors. Grand Lodge was represented by R.W. Bro. J. D. Campbell, Prov.G.M., and a splendid following of Grand officers. The ceremony of installing Bro. H. E. Denny, J.W., as Master was ably conducted by the Prov.G.M., assisted by his officers. Sincere regret was expressed by all that Bro. J. A. Stewart, the S.W., was unable to advance to the Master's Chair owing to ill health. A handsome jewel to mark the completion of 50 years service in the cause of Freemasonry by this Lodge was presented to the Master by R.W. Bro. A. Derby, P.Prov.G.M., on behalf of the brethren. After the Lodge was closed a retirement was made to the Radio Theatre, where a banquet of outstanding excellence was thoroughly enjoyed in spite of the cold.

The recent annual meeting of the Invercargill Freemasons' Hall Co. disclosed another year of careful and efficient administration by directors of this organisation, under the direction of R.W. Bro. A. Derby, P.Prov.G.M., as chairman, and the most capable Secretary, Bro. J. L. Sutton.

The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. E. C. Smith, paid an official visit to Lodge Waihopai, No. 139, on 18th November, and witnessed a good working of the Second Degree by W. Bro. McNaughton and his officers. He also paid a visit to Lodge Harvey, No. 49, during the month.

The W.M. (Bro. T. S. Grose), officers and brethren of Lodge St. John, No. 64. assembled in good numbers on 16th November to welcome the brethren of Lodge Manuherikia Kil. No. 109 (Alexandra), who were paying their annual official visit. The ceremony of initiation was conducted by the visitors in a most impressive manner before a good attendance. About 25 brethren made the trip from Alexandra with a view to resuming the fraternal visits enjoyed prior to the war years.

The recent official visit of the Master and brethren of Lodge Southland, No. 273, to Lodge Cromwell Kil., No. 98 (Otago Central) was most successful and greatly appreciated by visitors and members alike. The ceremonial work of the evening was conducted by the Southland brethren. Lodge Gordon, No. 320, held its regular meeting on 6th November, when W. Bro. F. Murray, W.M., and officers conducted the ceremony of initiation in a most satisfactory manner. This was the first ceremonial work conducted by this Lodge.

Ill. Bro. A. Sefton, 30°, Grand Commander of Zealandia Consistory, which meets at Dunedin, handed over to his successor. Ill. Bro. Wm. Robinson, 300, at the annual meeting on 16th November. Several other Invercargill members were present at this meeting.

OTAGO NOTES.

The month has been a busy one for the Prov. Grand Master and his officers, owing to the number of Installations attended in North Otago and the Dunedin District.

R.W. Bro. H. Archbold, who was accompanied by M.W. Bro. W. Lishner, P.G.M. V.W. Bros. T. L. Gillions, G.D.C. and G. S. M. Crawford. P.G.D.C., journeyed to Oamaru, and, joined by other G.L. officers residing in North Otago, conducted two Installations in that District.

The first was Lodge Ngapara, No. 68. on 15th October, when Bro. Jas. G. Laird was duly installed as W.M. A large number of brethren and visitors, principally from the Oamaru and Kurow Lodges, witnessed the impressive ceremony. This Lodge has experienced a very successful year, in spite of its somewhat isolated position, and it is to be congratulated on the fine Masonic spirit shown by the officers and brethren, most of whom have to travel long distances to attend meetings.

The very fine Temple in Oamaru provided a fitting setting for the Installation of W. Bro. J. W. Watson as R.W. Master of Lodge Oamaru Kil., No. 82. and resulted in a capacity attendance to witness the ceremony and to pay tribute to the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. E. C. Smith, whose presence and instructive and interesting address were very much appreciated by all present. The proceedings in the refectory were of the usual high standard and concluded a very successful function.

The Installation of Bro. E. A. Payton as W.M. of Lodge Oceanic, No. 154. was held in the Masonic Hall, St. Kilda, on 23rd October, when a full attendance witnessed the ceremony. The Installation supper, served in the St. Kilda Town Hall, brought an enjoyable evening to a successful conclusion.

On the following night, 24th October. Lodge Roslyn, No. 250, held its Installation meeting in the Masonic Hall, King Street, and resulted in perhaps the most successful to date, especially regarding the excellent attendance who witnessed the Installation of Bro. W. E. Bell as W.M.

Lodge St. Clair, No. 246, held its Installation meeting in the Masonic Hall, Cargill Road, on 6th November, when Bro. Jas. Rennie was duly installed as W.M. in the presence of a large assemblage of brethren and visitors, and resulted in a very successful and enjoyable evening. The buffet supper, too, was quite a success, the brethren appreciating the opportunity of moving round freely and meeting friends.

All the above ceremonies were conducted by the Prov. G.M., R.W. Bro. H. Archbold, assisted by officers of Grand Lodge. The Prov. G.M., has expressed his pleasure and appreciation at the splendid attendances at these meetings during the past month, and urges the brethren to support their Lodges to the utmost and thus further the interests of the Craft in our District.

The Hiram Lodge, No. 46, held its annual meeting on 22nd October. It is the custom of this Lodge to conduct its own Installation ceremony, consequently the outgoing Master, W. Bro. J. Lockhart duly installed his successor, Bro. A. W. C. Gorrie, being ably assisted by his officers, resulting in a fine performance on their part and reflecting credit on those responsible. During the evening R.W. Bro. H. Archbold, accompanied by a number of officers of Grand Lodge, was received with due honours. Most satisfactory refectory proceedings were enjoyed by the very large number present.

At the regular monthly meeting of Lodge Morning Star, No. 192, the W.M., W. Bro. A. G. Foley, had the pleasure of receiving R.W. Bro. H. Archbold, Prov.G.M., who in turn received M.W. Bro. E. C. Smith, G.M.. with the customary honours. The Grand Master's visit was very much appreciated by the brethren of the Lodge, who witnessed the unique occasion of the Grand Master taking part in the initiation of a member of his family and welcoming the candidate to the Craft with a neat and impressive address, which was deeply appreciated by the very large attendance, which included Masters of Lodges from Gore, Waimate and Timaru, as well as representatives from most of the Dunedin Lodges.

Lodge Manuherikia Kil., No. 109, celebrated its Jubilee at Alexandra in suitable fashion. The arrangements had been carefully planned and were excellently carried out. On 25th October a Special Jubilee Meeting was held in the Lodgeroom, when the W.M., W. Bro. J. A. Arnott, welcomed a good number of visitors representing the Lodges in the Otago Central District, as well as from further afield. The W.M. and brethren were delighted to have M.W. Bro. E. C. Smith, G.M., present and taking part in the proceedings. Eventually W. Bro. W. Bringans, a senior Past Master, assumed the chair and briefly addressed the assemblage, explaining the purpose of the gathering. The simple but dignified ceremony consisted mainly of Odes, and addresses delivered by M.W. Bro. E. C. Smith, G.M.. M.W. Bro. J. A. Sparrow, P.Pro G.M., W. Bro. J. L. Davidson. P.M.. and W. Bro. W. Bringans. During the service M.W. Bro. J. A. Sparrow unveiled an Honours Board of Worshipful Masters of the Lodge to serve as a memorial to the members who have passed to the Grand Lodge above. Altogether the service was most impressive and was very much appreciated by all present. The Jubilee Banquet, held in the Town Hall, was a fitting conclusion to a highly successful evening. The programme concluded on 27th October with a Church Parade in the evening at St. Enoch's Presbyterian Church, which was well attended.
