KIRKPATRICK HOUSE

(was Kirkpatrick Masonic Institute)

We may have a new name but our object is unchanged. This is to provide a real home for daughters of Masons who through illness or other circumstances require a new home.

Kirkpatrick House is sited in four acres of attractive grounds in sunny Nelson and offers first class primary education at a nearby school followed by secondary education at Nelson College for Girls. Kirkpatrick House provides an atmosphere in which a girl can grow up with a healthy and intelligent outlook on life.

Full financial responsibility will be accepted and parents or guardians should ask the Lodge Secretary to contact Kirkpatrick House.

Humility, In Each

As some must, of necessity, rule and teach, so others must learn, submit and obey. In this respect, Freemasonry is like the world outside, and like it, too, in that as time goes by men sometimes alter their respective positions, and he who was junior finds that he has become senior to Brn. who before held rank ahead of his own.

Pride in rank and plumage is natural enough if it becomes vainglory or if it contains an element of rejoicing that one has outstripped one's Brethren it is a defect, and a serious one. Humility is as important in the preceptor as in the student, in the Master as in the Entered Apprentice; for, if we may parody, he who is on the lowest spoke of the Masonic wheel may be equally entitled to our regard with one on the highest; and, indeed, the wheel turns as time goes by.

There is no Brother, there never has been and never will be a Brother who knows all about the Craft, whose judgment in Masonic matters is impeccable, and who can never make a mistake. It ill becomes any of us to be dogmatic or to know it all; and if, for the moment, we do not occupy the office to whose holder the Brethren should look for particular decisions, we should be particularly careful not to transgress the lines of authority, for that would be, in however small a way, to subvert the purposes of the Craft.

Honours are accorded to us by others, not exacted by us from them. The Brother who insists on his precedence and is miserable all the evening if he finds himself seated on the wrong side of his neighbour is not only a nuisance, he is a man who has allowed things to get out of perspective and has permitted his enjoyment of an evening which should be useful and happy to be marred by a triviality. It is not for nothing that the General Instructions at the beginning of the Ritual point out that the Master does not refer to himself as "Worshipful". Too many Masters, of course, do so refer to themselves, but those who have ever thought about the matter sedulously avoid the practice.

A delightful volume of reminiscences which was published a few years ago related the experiences of a retired naval officer, in whose home by a great fishing river the Governor-General of the Dominion used to spend occasional holidays. The naval officer used at the beginning of each day to make sure that he addressed the Governor quite formally, once, by the rather long and awkward mode, "Your Excellency", and then with a sigh of relief fell back on the simpler "Sir". Even if it is one's grandson who has just been installed and if one's own shoulders are heavy with bullion, it is courteous, it is gratifying and it is correct to address the young man, outside the door of the Lodge as well as within it, as "Worshipful Master". It carries a more important message, and no less regard, than simply using his name, and calling him "Joe", and he is insensitive if he does not notice it and realise that even the most elevated of Freemasons still pays honour and accords deference to the ruler of the Lodge. In all these things, it is the office that matters, not the man.

The Charge to the Brethren, having pointed out in good set terms that nudging and jockeying for position does not very well serve the purposes of Freemasonry, goes on to suggest that instead of the jealousies that such conduct would engender the objective we are really seeking is the happiness of us all. This can best be attained by submerging our personal importance and getting on with the job of trying to make other people happy. It is a simple lesson and an important one. The charge is delivered in every Lodge once in every year, and we should all retain its message in our minds.

THE AIM OF FREEMASONRY

Freedom an Essential Condition

The following powerful address was given by V.W. Bro, Dr. Hensley Henson, D.D., P.G.C., Bishop of Durham, in Durham Cathedral on Sunday, 29th September, 1935, the occasion being a thanksgiving service to commemorate the bicentenary of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Durham.—

"I distinguish three conditions which have favoured the growth of Freemasonry in Great Britain and which do, I think, disclose its essential principles," said Dr. Henson. "Those conditions are.—(1) freedom of civic life, (2) abstinence from party politics, and (3) loyalty to the moral law as it is presented in the Bible.

"There is no surer test of civic liberty than the citizen's freedom to enter into association with his fellow citizens to promote objects of common concern. Despots, ancient and modern, are ever suspicious of every form of combination. They suspect that, behind respectable pretences—religious, philanthropic, literary, scientific, recreational—there may be lurking disaffection, sedition, and potential revolt.

"It is only in communities which are united and stable that such associations of citizens can be safely tolerated, and though in 1734 there was a dynastic controversy which would break out in the Jacobite revolution of 1745, it is true to say that the English people were in a measure unequalled elsewhere in Europe, harmonious, tolerated and contented.

"Freemasonry could not have been organised, certainly could not have flourished, in an atmosphere of suspicion which generally exists elsewhere in Europe, nor do I believe it would be tolerated in this country if Great Britain were to follow the example of Russia, Germany and Italy, and surrender its heritage of civic freedom into the hands of a dictator.

"Freedom is the essential condition of Freemasonry as we have it in English self-government—loyally, actively, benevolently and proudly, but decisively religious."

The Bishop went on to say that abstinence from party politics was, from the first, perceived to be an essential condition of Freemasonry.

Not the least valuable of the services which the Masonic brotherhood rendered to the community was bound up with its abstinence from party politics. Thereby Freemasonry enabled partisans to meet on a plane where their normal differences were confessedly unimportant, and thus it mitigated the suspicions and misunderstandings which partisanship tended to create by the mutual sympathy which fellowship never failed to generate between men of goodwill.

"Accordingly," continued Dr. Henson, "Freemasonry is today an influence within the nation making always for social cohesion, for unity of sentiment, for social justice, for active charity. It bridges the chasms which sever classes and interests, and upholds the ideal of a genuine and operative fraternity.

"Let but the Masonic brotherhood hold to its professed principles, constant loyalty to its belief in the moral law which is not only the first duty of man, but also the only security for the happiness which_ is truly sound, and it may face the threatening future with the certainty that the record of its not inglorious past will be continued on the still wider areas of effort and triumph."

ADVICE TO THE OBSTINATE

Lincoln, who frequently encountered acute differences of opinion in his cabinet, once said that "when you have an elephant by the hind foot and he wants to get away, it is best to let him go." It's good advice still. If you can't have your own way, have the other fellow's—with as good a grace as possible.

One of the most unpleasant persons we ever knew was a "come hell and high water" man who refused even to consider the possibility that he could be wrong, once he had made up his mind. He thought he had a strong character. All he really had was a closed mind.

It isn't always easy to tell whether you are right or are simply being stubborn, whether it is conviction or pride that is influencing you. At such times it helps to pick out someone whom you admire and respect and try to imagine what he would say and do in such a situation. Then behave accordingly.

The Masonic Meaning Of Truth

The following is the substance of the Third Lecture on "Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth," given to the London Rank Association at Mark Masons' Hall London, by W. Bro. the Rev. Joseph Johnson, P.A.G.Chap., L.R., author of "The Lure of Freemasonry."

The Ancient Lectures on Freemasonry have defined Truth—the third Grand Principle on which the Order is founded—in the following terms:—

"A Divine attribute, and the foundation of every Masonic virtue; to be good men and true, is a lesson we are taught at our Initiation; on this grand theme we contemplate and by its unerring dictates endeavour to regulate our lives and actions. Hence hypocrisy and deceit are, or ought to be, unknown to us; sincerity and plain dealing are our distinguishing characteristics, whilst the heart and tongue join in promoting each other's welfare, and rejoicing in the prosperity of the Craft."

It may be desirable at the very outset to differentiate between truth and knowledge. Truth is conformity to fact or reality, veracity, that which is without any phrase of falsehood, and is indispensable as a basis of character—of self understanding and understanding the influences that surround us—which is of unspeakable value as a foundation to the building of the human superstructure. Knowledge is a clear preception of that which exists, the acquisition of truth and fact. The fact of what nature is, of what the world and life really are, is a phase of truth; but the information available and essential to acquire the truth, is knowledge. A wise man desires truth and seeks knowledge not that he may regarded as a great scholar, but that he may usefully fulfil the purpose of his life, A man may or may not seek learning, but enlightenment he cannot do without.

Truth is the real bond that unites individuals and it lies at the very basis of human happiness. Without this virtue there can be no real fellowship in Masonry and no confidence in friendship; and in its absence, no reliance can be placed on speech and no dependence on promises. Truth means honesty, uprightness and integrity, features of truth so important in this workaday life, that without them life fails in its Divine purpose. Sir Philip Sydney is reported to have said that "Truth is the ground of Science, the centre wherein all things repose, and is the type of eternity."

It is not without significance that Truth is one of the foundation principles of Freemasonry, and not in any narrow or restricted sense. It is no mere figure of speech, and rightly appreciated it stimulates qualities of mind and heart of tremendous importance, if character is to be moulded and developed so as to command respect and confidence.

The symbolic teaching of Freemasonry is of such a nature that it should have a practical bearing on everyday life. The application of it should teach men that dignity lies in service and that happiness more often comes from well-doing than doing well. The trend of Masonic instruction is to make the material subservient to the moral, the actual to the ideal, and to bring the spirit and service of the individual into harmony with the design of the Great Architect of the Universe. The implications of Freemasonry point to the human soul as the temple, the rightful dwelling place of the Most High; and it gives character and tone to the Craft wherever this is recognised.

Freemasonry makes a vital contribution to freedom of thought and faith, and this largely explains its influence in drawing men together, giving them special facilities for fraternal fellowship and humane service, thus creating for Freemasonry a special place among the influential organisations of the world.

Truth as a foundation principle Of the Order is a fact of far-reaching importance. The scales of human life in the long run always balance in favour of the man who is frank and truthful, who has "truth in the inward parts," who has the disposition of trustworthiness, who has the principle and not policy underlying all his activities—a man of constancy, of accuracy, of exactitude, of loyalty and steadfast allegiance, the man of uprightness and righteousness, the man who through and through is characterised by sincerity and integrity, the man whose probity no man would question—that is, the man in whose life, both in thought, word and deed, the meaning of truth is expressed, To him "life is real, life is earnest," and he is free from pretence and unreality.

The age through which we are now passing specially needs truth, the truth as enshrined in the teaching of Masonry. Look around, or look abroad over the national horizon into the life of other countries and nationalities, and you cannot fail to be struck with the fact that both men and nations are strangely confused and troubled. The outlook in some directions is distressing. Sometimes we think an overwhelming crisis is imminent! Forms of faith are changing and many sections of human life seem bewildered. Suspicion and mistrust appear to characterise men both individually and collectively, and the present appears to be a time of special peril; but to one who regards mankind with sympathy, I feel that a time like the present is full of hope; it is a challenge to members of the Craft especially to more definitely endeavour to translate the ideals of Freemasonry into actual experience.

In our Masonic fellowship we come together at the altar of prayer and on all occasions, providing we assemble at our Lodge meetings in the right mood and attitude, the various ceremonies we Witness, when conducted in sincerity, keep alive our faith in the truths that make us rejoice in the Order, and thus by every resource of art, makes tangible the power of love, the worth of beauty, and the reality of the ideal. As is well known, Freemasonry identifies itself with no schemes for the reform and betterment of mankind, but devotes its energy to refining and ennobling men as they seek a place in its fraternal fellowship. In this way, Freemasonry is doing fundamental work; it is promoting in the hearts of men growth in the spirit of justice, freedom and friendship, thus leading the way to mutual recognition and respect.

Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth, the three Grand Principles of Masonry, constitute a threefold tie, uniting man with God, his fellow man and himself; thus giving coherence and cohesion to life, and thereby emphasising the principles of piety and virtue, which is all to the good seeing that the world will never be better than the men who inhabit it. Every newly admitted Brother to Freemasonry is taught to live a Brotherly life, and in the practice of Brotherhood is thereby affecting for good the whole life and transactions of mankind.

In the teaching of genuine Freemasonry there is recognition of life being lived at its highest and best; and the Masonic meaning of truth as a foundation principle is that sincerity and integrity must be indelibly stamped on all our relationships; consequently there must be an entire absence of pretence and hypocrisy in our dealings with one another. Someone has said that it takes two men and God to make a Brother, and our sympathies are with that view. We lose nothing and gain much by joining heart and hand with the gifts to the common task of executing the Divine plan for humanity.

Few things are more beautiful to contemplate than the teaching of Masonry in its various Ceremonies. In the Initiation Ceremony the paramount importance of righteousness is enforced, the recognition of God as guide and counsellor, doing to the other man what in similar circumstances you would wish done to you, and the practice of every moral and social virtue; furthermore, that the Volume of the Sacred Law is the unerring standard of Truth and Justice, and that our actions should be regulated by the Divine precepts it contains—that Brethren should be exemplary in the discharge of their duties as citizens, as individuals they should exercise prudence, temperance, fortitude and justice, being especially careful to maintain benevolence and charity in their fullest splendour, dedicate themselves to such pursuits as will enable them to be respectable in life, useful to mankind and an ornament to the Fraternity; and finally, to imprint on their own hearts the sacred dictates of Truth, Honour and Virtue. It is scarcely possible to visualise life on a higher level! How important also is the Ceremony of Passing, the endorsement of the moral obligation, the urge to acquire intelligence, to study the Arts and Sciences with a view to life's equipment and the Master Mason, the teaching of which in its impressiveness transcends all that has preceded it? We know of no drama so thrilling as that Ceremony, which brings us face to face with eternal verities, and makes all who witness it realise the solemnity of life, the reality of death and the certainty of the future life. Thus Masonry in its several Ceremonies is always emphasising, and teaching its adherents the need of morality and transparency, the importance of intelligence and the certainty of immortality, together with the supreme value of those eternal verities which provide a sure foundation for a noble, refined and valiant manhood.

Such a high standard of teaching will, however, achieve little or nothing in the life of a Mason unless the principle of Truth—the quality of being true—is exemplified in sincerity, uprightness and integrity. Its absence spoils the life and lowers the Fraternity in respect and esteem. A Mason may have social status, which gives him position and power in the community; he may have high rank, which places him in a favoured position; but, if he is lacking in probity and rectitude, and fails to square his conduct with the high teaching of Masonry, he falls far short of the Grand Principles of the Order. The words of the prophet Micah should ever be remembered :—"He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love ability to understand the order of the world in which human life has its advent and career, and in the principles of truth revealed to trace its relationship to the Life Beyond. What can we say of the sublime degree of a mercy, and to walk with thy God."

TARANAKI DISTRICT

HINEMOA No. 786 S.C.

The September meeting saw the end of the various events planned for the 75th Jubilee.

At the August meeting Sir Donald McLean 1646 E.C., some of whose early members had been Charter members of Hinemoa, came to Stratford and carried out the ceremony of Raising. All the ceremonial work of the evening, with the exception of the Obligation and the Secrets, was carried out by the Sir Donald McLean brethren.

W. Bro. Jack Orchard and his Officers are to be congratulated on the fine work shown. The brethren of Hinemoa, including Bro. J. H. Childs, watched with interest and were very appreciative of the work of their guest Lodge.

After concluding the formal business of the Lodge, the rest of the September meeting took the form of a general variety concert in the Old Folks' Hall.

There were about 150 people present from all parts of Taranaki. The most pleasing part of the evening was to see the number of wives who accompanied their husbands to this function.

Bro. J. Coloquhoun acted as compere, and under his able control the steady flow of items kept everyone entertained. Our sincere thanks are extended to those artists who, by their efforts, made the evening the pleasurable one it was.

Bro. J. H. Childs, initiated May 1894, cut the cake. The Grand Master Mason of Scotland, as a mark of personal respect, created Bro. J. H. Childs a Distinguished Service Member—an honour of which the brethren of Lodge Hinemoa feel is no more than the due of the recipient. Bro. W. A. C. Briesman made the presentation on behalf of Grand Lodge.

One amusing incident took place when the presentation was made. Harry's age was given at 95—this drew an indignant "96" from the "young man" concerned.

Out of all the activities associated with the Jubilee the most pleasure has been found in knowing that ties, dating from the Lodge's founding, with Sir Donald McLean and de Burgh Adams are as strong as ever.—T.O.R.

[Bro. Childs, congratulations on receiving that distinguished and rare honour of Distinguished Service Member. We also consider you deserve it.—Editor.]

Saturday, the 26th August, 1967 was a red letter day in the history of Taranaki Masonry.

Following on arrangements made by the Taranaki Research Lodge (in addition to a lot of hard work), the Exemplification of the First Degree as worked approximately 200 years ago, was staged by the W.M., Officers and Brethren of the United Masters Lodge No. 167, Auckland. before an attendance of between 600 and 700 brethren from Taranaki and nearby districts in the Assembly Hall of the New Plymouth Girls' High School.

V.W. Bro. J. P. Glenie, Assistant Provincial Grand Master, Auckland, gave an entertaining and comprehensive review of the various aspects of the ceremony as it would be unfolded during the evening.

The costumes worn by the participants were those of the particular period and the equipment used was exactly similar to that which was used by our early brethren. Indeed, much of it is genuine and came from the eighteenth century collection of M.W. Bro. N. B. Spencer.

It would have been hard to find anyone who attended the ceremony who had not enjoyed the presentation. This occasion marked the sixth presentation of the working of the degree, and is a tribute to the time and trouble which the participating brethren take to make it a success.

The visitors were well cared for during their stay and a pleasant after function get together at the Tasman Hotel, New Plymouth, with the wives and brethren of the Research Lodge completed a happy and fruitful weekend.

Our thanks and congratulations to the brethren of the Taranaki Lodge of Research for a job of work well organised and successfully completed.

The regular meeting of the Stratford Lodge No. 75 was held on the third Wednesday of August—the work was set down for passing Bro. Morrison, but due to unforeseen circumstances, our candidate was unable to be present.

The opportunity was taken of presenting a lecture entitled, "Charity", read by V.W. Bro. J. B. Coull, G.D.C., which had been written about 25 years ago by a member of the Stratford Lodge. The theme of the lecture could just as easily be applied to the present day as to those of the time which it was originally conceived.

Lodge Moa No. 110, Inglewood, met on the third Monday of August and in the absence of degree work, a paper was given by Bro. W. Marsh on the Volume of the Sacred Law and its relationship to the Craft. An excellent presentation by a young member of the craft. The First Tracing Board was also given by W. Bro. R. M. Ashton, P.M., of the Lodge.

For their September meeting Lodge Whangamomona initiated Mr. McEwen of Tewera before a good attendance of brethren and visitors.

It is good to see that Lodges are again getting degree work after a lull over recent months.

On Saturday, 9th September, 1967, Lodge Tainui No. 336, Awakino, were privileged to receive an official visit from R.W. Bro. J. C. Taylor, Provincial Grand Master of Taranaki, who was accompanied by Rt. W. Bro. V. F. Howell. Past Provincial Grand Master, and Grand Lodge Officers.

The work of the evening was to pass Bro. A. Cull of Lodge Nau Mai No. 177, Taumarunui, whom W. Bro. N. Street and goodly number of his brethren had accompanied to provide Tainui with some degree working for their regular meeting.

Lodge Tainui can well be described as one of the outposts of Masonry in Taranaki, and the companionship enjoyed by such visits from Lodges in other districts serves to illustrate the bonds that have been forged over the years and long may it continue.

There was an excellent attendance at the meeting, although the weather was not the best that Awakino can provide for its visitors.

Other branches of Masonry continue to thrive in Taranaki. M.W.S. H. Horn of Taranaki Rose Croix No. 2, hands over to M.W.S. elect W. Bro. A. R. Jenkins after a successful year of office.

To those officers who have in various branches been elevated to Grand Lodge or Grand Chapter rank we extend our congratulations and wish them a successful period of office.

R.W. BRO. J. R. BONGARD, P.Prov. G.M.

The Waikato District and Freemasonry in general suffered a grievous loss in the passing of R.W. Bro. J. R. Bongard on the 4th August, 1967. He was initiated in the Tauranga Lodge No. 125 and immediately showed his interest in, and readiness to work for the progress and welfare of the Lodge. The Second World War interrupted his progress towards the masters chair, but in 1944, when again free from his military duties, he became S.W. for the second time and in 1945 was elected Master, which position he filled with distinction and great usefulness to his Lodge.

After a term as a member of the Board of General Purposes he was in 1954 appointed Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, and in 1957 Grand Director of Ceremonies. His work in these positions was outstanding and marked him as one fit and able for further advancement. On his retirement from his professional life, he made service to the Craft one of his main interests and in 1960 was appointed Provincial Grand Master. In his five years as such he made an outstanding contribution to the welfare and progress of Freemasonry in the Waikato District. In 1961 he was appointed Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of New South Wales and was honoured by that Grand Lodge with the rank of Past Grand Warden.

He was a man of unusual ability, generous of his time and effort and personified the teachings and principles of the Craft. The masters and brethren of Lodges throughout the length and breadth of his widespread district have testified as to the great help they received from his kindly guidance and advice, always so freely given. His knowledge of Freemasonry was profound and real, and by his character and conduct, which exemplified all that is best in the tenets and principles of the Craft, he won the trust and affection of all who came in contact with him.

In civil life he was employed as Engineer to the Tauranga Electric Power Board from its inception and for all but the first two years as Engineer-Manager. The Board and Community acknowledge with gratitude his contribution to its progress from the formation years to the present time.

As a soldier he served with the New Zealand Forces throughout the 1914-18 war, being Commissioned in the field and winning the Military Cross. In the Second World War he commanded the Second Hauraki Regiment on Home Service with the rank of Lieut.-Colonel.

During his long and useful life of service he earned the high regard of all sections of the community and his memory will long remain enshrined in the hearts of all who knew him.

Obituary

RT. WOR. BRO. ALBERT EDWARD GREIG

Freemasonry in General and Marlborough District in particular suffered a great loss by the death on 22nd August, 1967, after a long illness of Rt. W. Bro. Albert Edward (Eddie) Greig.

Rt. Wor. Bro. Greig was Initiated in Waitohi Lodge No. 111 at Picton on 26th October, 1932, was Installed as Master in 1939, appointed as Grand Director of Ceremonies for Nelson-Marlborough in 1951, was Asst. Provincial Grand Master 1954-56, and Provincial Grand Master from 1957 to 1960. He was also a foundation and honorary member of Lodge Tasman Bay No. 413.

He joined Marlborough Rose Croix Chapter in 1937, was Enthroned as Most Wise Sovereign in 1947, Elevated to 30th Degree on 25th January, 1950, and then to 31st Degree.

He joined Marlborough Royal Arch Chapter in 1944, and was installed as First Principal in 1955. In the Knight Templars Degree he joined in 1946, was Installed as Preceptor in 1951, and appointed Grand Banner Bearer in 1961.

Over a period of 35 years in Freemasonry he has taken a very active part in all branches.

A Lodge of Sorrow was held by Waitohi Lodge in the Masonic Lodge Room at Blenheim, and a large number of Brethren and Grand Lodge Officers were present to honour our late Rt. W. Brother. The Masonic service held at the Methodist Church, Blenheim was conducted by, W. Bro. K. Valk (W.M. of Waitohi Lodge), and Rt. W. Bro. Frank Mogridge, Past Prov. Grand Master. A large number of Nelson brethren, including the Prov. Grand Master, Rt. W. Bro. J. D. Baird, and some Marlborough Brethren were present at the Crematorium at Nelson.

At the Lodge of Sorrow the Eulogy was delivered by Rt. W. Bro. F. Mogridge who spoke the following:—

The purpose of a Lodge of Sorrow is to honour the memory of a Brother who has gone from our mortal presence, and to pay tribute to the life and service he gave to his fellow men and so we take this opportunity to remember the life and service of the late Rt. W. Bro. Eddie Greig, and perhaps to profit from the good example he has set before us. If I were asked what I considered the most distinguishing characteristics of Rt. W. Bro. Greig's life I would have no hesitation in saying "Service".

In the Charge after Initiation we are enjoined to make a serious study of the Volume of the Sacred Law for therein we are taught the duties we owe to God, to our Neighbours and ourselves. The duties we owe to God and to ourselves can probably be considered of a personal nature, but the duty to our neighbour has a much wider significance. When the question was asked by one of the Disciples of his Master who is my neighbour? And the parable given in explanation left no doubt that it embraced the whole of mankind. Rt. W. Bro. Greig accepted this interpretation in its wider sense and practised it as far as it lay within the compass of his environment. His work as the guiding spirit in the establishment of the Wesley Home at Picton for aged persons of all creeds and classes is a lasting monument of his concern for their comfort in their declining years, and he continued his interest in the Home as long as his health permitted.

His active participation in hospital work, both in Picton and Blenheim, was further evidence of his concern for the sick and needy, having served for 21 years as a member of the Picton Hospital Committee (12 years as Chairman), and on the Marlborough Hospital Board.

He also accepted the challenge as a citizen of the world, giving unstintingly of his services and talents in many civil, social, and sporting activities. He served for 30 years on the Picton Borough Council, both as Mayor and councillor.

His award of the M.B.E. by Her Majesty the Queen was one which gave us the greatest of pleasure as a recognition of the long and valuable service he had given so unselfishly to his fellow citizens and country. He has left behind him a record of service to his fellow men which should be an example to us of those attributes which we endeavour to inculcate in our Masonic order and inspire us to accept the challenge given to us to dispense justice, encourage truth and promote the Principle of Benevolence.

Our Rt. W. Brother has joined the illustrious band of worthy and distinguished Brethren whose loyalty and services have shed a bright lustre on the Brotherhood of Masonry and may we profit by their example in the practice of every moral and social virtue.—G.P.

OTAGO

Dollar Day and W. Bro. B. J. Jackson, W.M. of Lodge Ionic No. 191, welcomed a large number of visitors. R.W. Bro. W. W. During the ceremony the main lights fused and the completion was carried out with the assistance of the light on the Lodge organ; this was much appreciated by all Brethren present.

SOUTHLAND

At the Annual Meeting of the Southland Masonic Trust, recently held in Invercargill, some very enlightening information was given to those assembled. The efforts of the Trustees were outlined by W. Bro. C. Braithwaite, Chairman, who presided over a fair gathering of interested persons. There appeared to be two matters which require immediate attention, a campaign for new members and consequent donations, and the dissemination of information concerning the operations of the organisation.

Efforts have been made to settle upon a definite project, but for the need of finance each suggestion, as worthy as it may be, is definitely beyond our present financial resources. It was decided to issue an annual report to each member, through the good offices of Lodge Secretaries, in the hope that interest in the Trust will be awakened. There are over 3,500 members in the 26 Lodges in Southland, and in spite of all other calls upon the finances of each, it should be possible to raise sufficient capital to allow the Trust to embark upon a definite project.

In accordance with the Constitution three Trustees retired, but were unanimously re-elected for a further term, not having had the opportunity to prove their real worth.

The best attended meeting since the Chapter was dedicated was held in Lumsden last week, when the Past Principals of Taringatura Royal Arch Chapter occupied all the offices for the purpose of an exemplification of Royal Arch Degree.

Regalia House*

R.E. Comp. B. J. Perkins occupied the chair of the 1st Principal, and the ceremony was excellently carried out. Never has a more enjoyable evening been held, and it would appear that the Chapter is in great heart. There was no dearth of members in attendance, neither were visitors on the scant side. The Chapter room was literally packed out. There was left no doubt in the minds of the Chapter Officers that the event must be repeated annually. It can safely be said "well done, Taringatura."

One of the Masonic highlights in Freemasonry in Southland was the recent installation of Bro. W. P. R. Price in Lodge Fortitude, No. 64, when the lodge room was packed and the Grand Lodge Officers accompanying the Prov. G.M. numbered 36. R.W. Bro. J. H. Buckingham conducted the ceremonial work, and as usual he was ably assisted by his Grand Director of Ceremonies and Grand Lodge Officers. The customary banquet followed the installation ceremony, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the numerous visitors and members of the lodge.

Visiting by sister Lodges in the Province is a feature of Freemasonry in Southland which is much appreciated by all Lodges, but particularly when candidates are in short supply and the Lodge requires work to do. It is pleasing to observe how sister Lodges either undertake the ceremonial work or allow the Mother Lodge to do so. The main result is that candidates are being distributed to the best advantage and more visiting is taking place between Lodges.

OBITUARY

Freemasons in Southland recently suffered a severe loss in the passing of V.W. Bro. E. J. Jones, P.G.D.C., and at the installation meeting of Aparima Lodge No. 77 the Provincial Grand Master paid a tribute to the memory of one whom he considered was a most conscientious freemason, a man very highly respected by all who had been fortunate to have been associated with him. For over 40 years the late V.W. Bro. Jones, well and favourably known as "Ted", had been a most active and helpful member of Lodge Waihopai No. 189. His activities were always quietly and efficiently performed and they were always directed through an avenue of help to some other person. He was for many years the Secretary of the Southland Board of Enquiry and in that organisation his excellent services will be for ever remembered.

A very large number of people attended the service in Knox Church where our late member worked as one of the chief officers over a period of many years. The attendance of brethren in the packed church was indeed a great tribute to a man who had endeared himself to so many by his helpfulness and kindness to all who came under his notice who had need of assistance in one way or another.

The late V.W. Bro. Jones served on the Board of Benevolence for a term but owing to failing health he had to decline the offer of an extension of the period he was appointed for. He was the auditor for the Southland Almoners' Association and was also a Vice-president of that organization in which he took a great interest. In all his works he leaned over backwards to help his fellow man and the Freemasons of Southland are thankful that they were so fortunate to have had a man of his calibre amongst them.

The members of the Murihiku Princes Rose Croix Chapter No. 36 had a most successful meeting recently when a candidate for perfection was elevated to the 18th degree. S.G.I.G. (N.Z. South) paid an official visit on this occasion for the express purpose of announcing the advancement of two illustrious brethren (B. J. Perkins and M. W. Grantham) to the 32 and 31st degrees respectively and extended sincere congratulations on the elevation of two men whom he considered had rendered extremely good service to Rose Croix Freemasonry in the area under his jurisdiction.

Another crowded lodge room was observed by the Prov. G. Master (Rt. W. Bro. J. H. Buckingham) when, accompanied by a large following of his G.L. Officers, attended the recent installation meeting of Aparima Lodge No. 77, Riverton, Western Southland District.

This lodge is another of the country lodges well known for hospitality and well attended installation meetings. The ceremonial work was conducted by the Rt. W. Bro P. G. Master and he was ably assisted by his G.L. Officers, who worked under the direction of V.W. Bro. Bruce Sutherland, G.D.C. It is at this meeting that the Prov. Grand Master usually announces the appointment of G.L. Officers for the district but on this occasion he was unable to do so, the meeting being held on the evening prior to the confirmation of the appointments by the Board of General Purposes on the following day. While a few may have been disappointed there was certainly none who were not well pleased to be hi attendance.

FREEDOM OF THOUGHT

Some day, when the cloud of prejudice has been dispelled by the searchlight of Truth, the world will honour Masonry for its heroic service to freedom of thought and of faith. No part of its mainstay has been more noble, no principles of its teaching have been more precious than its agelong and unwavering demand for the right and duty of every soul to seek that light by which no man was ever injured, and that truth which makes him free.
