KIRKPATRICK HOUSE

(was Kirkpatrick Masonic Institute)

We may have a new name but our object is unchanged. This is to provide a real home for daughters of Masons who through illness or other circumstances require a new home.

Kirkpatrick House is sited in four acres of attractive grounds in sunny Nelson and offers first class primary education at a nearby school followed by secondary education at Nelson College for Girls.

Kirkpatrick House provides an atmosphere in which a girl can grow up with a healthy and intelligent outlook on life.

Full financial responsibility will be accepted and parents or guardians should ask the Lodge Secretary to contact Kirkpatrick House.

I Mean, Charity

Freemasonry is noted for many things: it is known as a society which is exclusive and has secrets, a society which looks after its own members, a society which allows only grown men to become its members and will not admit women or children. It is known as a strongly social influence, confirming men in their civic and their religious allegiances, without attempting to supersede either. It is known as an ancient order which has spread to many countries. It is known to be a cult which depends upon symbolism for its method of teaching. A very great deal is known, outside Freemasonry, about the Craft, for although Freemasonry does not advertise and has its secrets, it is not a secret society. There is nothing wrong in these things being known. Certain things, indeed, are expected to be known about every Freemason—that he is one to whom the burdened heart may pour forth its sorrow or to whom the distressed may prefer their suit; that his heart may be relied upon to be expanded by pity and goodwill, his hand to be guided by justice. There is indeed, much that the outside world may know and does know about the Craft and those who are members of it. There is above all one thing for which the Freemason should always be known, for it should be his distinguishing characteristic: it is the virtue, the quality of charity.

Charity, we are told in a famous passage, like its sister Mercy, is twice blessed, for it blesses the giver as well as the receiver. We are reminded that in a society as widespread as our own, the branches of which are spread over the four quarters of the globe, there are some members who, perhaps through no fault of their own are poor and needy. We are told that when we encounter any such we should remember the particular lesson we learned when we were for the moment in the same condition of indigence, and should respond to the call of the fellow-feeling which this recollection cannot fail to engender.

Even in the days of the cathedral-builders the wandering artisan could rely upon the next band of craftsmen he encountered to see to his material needs, to look after his safety, assuage his thirst and his hunger. Today things are more formalised, but there is an officer of the lodge whose function is to dispense alms and comfort: he is the Almoner. Probably not a great deal of the money which the lodge devotes to benevolent objects will pass through his hands: resolutions of the lodge or its standing committee or the prerogative discretion of the Master may take care of a good deal of it. But aid is given sometimes in, cash, some-times in kind, and sometimes simply through extending the right hand of fellowship to the lonely, to the Brother who has perhaps for the moment forgotten that he has Brothers upon whom he is entitled to rely. The visitation of the sick and of the unfortunate is a task which should devolve upon any body of men who are linked by a common bond. For a Freemason, a member of a lodge, it is obligatory to see that what needs to be done is done. Apart from what he does himself, the Freemason acts through his agent, one of the officers of his lodge, the Almoner.

Freemasonry means different things to different men. For some it has a strong religious element: it provides an observance which they would not miss any more than they would miss attendance at their church or conventicle. For others it provides a stimulus to philosophical or historical scholarship: it can be an abiding interest in this way and it often is. For some men it is a club and forum, a place where one can be sure of meeting one's fellows, and sure of a welcome. For others, in its ritual observances, it satisfies the love of drama. Freemasonry is as many-sided as a cut diamond. The light that shines out through each of the faces, the illumination that irradiates the whole, is always the same. It is Charity—Caritas, dearness, kindness, love: however one expresses it it is always the same, always the distinguishing characteristic of our Order. If this were to be lacking, Freemasonry would not be Freemasonry.

The work of the Almoner, then, whether it is done by an officer called the Almoner or whether it is simply part of the work of the lodge, is essential to Masonry: it is the very heart of the Craft.

ACCURACY

To know the origins of some of the fine phrases in the ritual and with that knowledge to flavour their teachings with a spiritual insight into the depths of their meaning, is vastly more important than the most exact repetition of words like the outpouring of an automatic phonograph, says a writer in an overseas journal.

Accuracy should be the objective of every good ritualist, but it should be the accuracy with knowledge of the inner meaning of the words spoken.

Only thus can he learn the reward of hearing his brethren say, "He gives that just as if he were making it up as he goes along". That is the highest praise and is born only by accuracy, knowledge and sincerity. As you present to the neophyte these masterpieces of the ages, do you have an inward feeling they contain wisdom that has never been excelled? That you are delivering to the candidate a message that should be to him the most far reaching, inspiring character building plan of life, that only the chief Architect of the Universe could draw?

If so, you will not be concerned with oratory or the entertainment of those on the sidelines. You will be thinking only of your duty to God and the candidate. Your sincerity will be so felt that a misspoken word will be unnoticed, and when you will have finished, everyone will feel he has been in the presence of God. If instead of a gem or a flower, we could cast the gift of a lovely thought into the heart of a friend, that would be giving as the angels must give.

WHAT PRICE TEACHERS?

Are teachers as important as plumbers? Or bricklayers? Or electrical engineers? Aristotle, more than 2,000 years ago, declared that teachers are more important even than parents, for parents only bring children into the world; it is the teachers who teach them how to live!

Half the beds in our hospitals are filled with persons unable to adjust themselves to modern living. One dollar out of every four we spend for medical treatment goes to treat the mentally ill. Juvenile delinquency is increasing. Prisons are being filled faster than they can be built. The personal virtues—truthfulness, honesty, integrity—are being disregarded by persons whom you wouldn't think would disregard them:

What is to be done? First, we must realise that "as the twig is bent" so the tree is inclined—and that school days are the twig-bending days! We must appreciate more fully the magnitude of the responsibility left on the school-house steps. We must quit quibbling, and encourage teachers to feel that their most important job is to teach character—in any grade, in any school. Finally, we should evaluate the ability and skill of our teachers in terms of how their students turn out—the kind of persons they become. Not all teachers can handle such an assignment. It is imperative that we discover—and pay for—teachers who can!

75th JUBILEE OF MACKENZIE LODGE, No. 93

SATURDAY 16 AUGUST 1969

Address by M. Wor. Bro. F. W. Pringle, Pro G.M.

The thought for what I have to say tonight comes from the printed history of this Lodge—indeed from the records of the Lodge of July 1895 when the business of the evening was a lecture entitled, "The First Temple". I do not intend to traverse the history of the Lodge, nor to refer to the great, the good, and particularly the faithful brethren, who have served and are serving it so well. Rather do I seek to set before you a lesson compounded from the lecture title of, "The First Temple", and the title which is so dear to me of "Serving Brother".

To us all was given the opportunity of becoming servants in the building of the great temple of Freemasonry—to us all was given the responsibility of becoming guardians of that temple—to us all was given the task of laying up treasures within that temple—to the Glory of God, to the benefit of mankind and to the spiritual and ethical betterment of ourselves.

I believe it proper on great occasions such as this particularly, and perhaps on the anniversary of our initiation into the mysteries of our craft, that we should each of us take stock, and consider how well we have discharged our duties. How well we have served as true and faithful brethren. How much we have merited the seal of approbation placed on us by our predecessors and by the brethren of our mother lodge at our initiation.

Too often today in this busy and complex life of the twentieth century, do we tend to put aside the great lessons of Freemasonry—the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Far too often do we tend to forget the great words of the final charge in the First Degree—"to your God, to your neighbour and to yourself".

True it is, that the history of Freemasonry goes back into the mysteries of antiquity. Often I try to visualise the giant minds of those who conceived and brought into being the tremendous conception of a system of moral and ethical principles without religious or racial barriers which have endured through the ages. At our initiation we became part of it. We, all of us, became builders of a temple.

If we think of the great intellects which inspired Freemasonry, let us think also of the vision, the courage, the foresight and the dedication of the founders of this Lodge, of your lodge and of my lodge. Let us ask ourselves how our Masonic ancestors would regard us, and to how many of us would they say, "Well done thou good and faithful servant". Let us in our stocktaking of ourselves consider how well we have guarded the Temple; the integrity and the proud and the great name of Freemasonry. Let us consider how much we have adorned and decorated it with the rich silks of compassion and tolerance, the lovely brocades of temperance and justice, the glorious cloth-of-gold of charity, not only charity of the pocket, but also of the heart and of the outstretched hand. Let us consider how we have tended the great fire of brotherhood, where every Mason might warm his hands and go forth to demonstrate to the world at large that he was one to whom the burdened heart could pour forth its sorrow, to whom the distressed could prefer their suit.

Let us remember that the cement of brotherly love and affection which united the founders of this Lodge and indeed, of every lodge, into a society of friends and brothers, is the very bond which links us to them, and should remind us of the injunction to unite in the grand design of being happy and communicating happiness.

— NOTICE —

To Lodge Secretaries, Correspondents and Others

In order to assist the printers to make prompt delivery of the "Craftsman" it is imperative that Lodge Secretaries and correspondents must post alterations to advertisements and notes so that they will reach our office NOT LATER THAN THE 10th OF THE MONTH for insertion in the following month's issue. Any matter received after that date will be held over for the next issue. Please post all correspondence to:

P.O. BOX 10050, WELLINGTON

These were the moral duties laid upon us by them to glorify the great temple of Freemasonry. This was the challenge laid upon us so to carry into the outside world the lessons we were taught within that temple. It is for us to show that as Freemasons we are interested and willing to help, indeed to lead, in the cause of medicine and education, in diffusing the light of knowledge, in the care of the aged and the sick, in solving the problems of youth; that we as citizens of this world are working to make it a better one,

In a more material context let us remember also other aspects of our duty. Have we lowered the high standards of entry which were demanded by our predecessors? Do we make it too easy today to become a Freemason, for thus we depreciate the value of our craft? I believe that we should raise our standards and not permit them to lessen. Are the lodge rooms which were built by our elder brethren maintained to the standard which they would wish? For here we show part of the face of Freemasonry to the world. The exterior of our lodge rooms is one of the standards by which we will be judged.

Consider, too, we are guarding the Funds of Benevolence as we should? Are we ensuring that the contributions made and being made for our charities are being wisely expended? Should we not seek to conserve the capital sum and not be led into providing resources for projects which may ultimately become a burden on our successors? I agree that our project for homes and for aged people's accommodation evince to the world that we are prepared to play our part, but I believe also that every such project should be very closely examined and the implications of calls on the Funds of Benevolence carefully examined before we proceed further. The attrition of the capital of the Funds of Benevolence will defeat the very purpose for which it was raised.

These are some of the things to which I think we should give our constant thought; for each of us was given the responsibility of preserving the destiny of the Craft.

To each of us was given a rough ashlar to work upon. Let us rest for a moment tonight from our labours, to see how close it has become to that perfection which will make it a stone worthy of, and fit for the temple which we seek to raise, to the glory of the Great Architect. Let us remember the faith and the foresight of our elder brethren and prove that we have accepted the duty laid upon us and that we are indeed worthy of their trust.

"Lord who shall abide in thy tabernacle?
who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
"He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart."

WAIKATO

The Whakatane "Beacon", 20 December 1969

LODGE GIFT FOR CARDIAC MONITOR

A cheque of $725 was presented to the Whakatane Hospital Board on Wednesday toward the cost of purchasing a $1,000 theatre cardiac monitor by Masonic lodges throughout the district as a memorial to two of their members, Messrs G. W. Drayson and J. F. Gibson, who died in an accident at the Matata subway some time ago.

At the meeting of the board on the same day approval was granted to supply the balance to purchase the monitor. It had previously been ordered and was expected to arrive from Australia in about three months' time.

The hospital already has a $3,000 cardiac monitor but the new one will be installed so that doctors can keep an eye on the screen while they are operating on a patient.

At the presentation to the board of the cheque, Mr F. Prideaux of the Whakatane branch said that members of the Whakatane, Apanui, Murupara, Kawerau and Taneatua Lodges had raised the money among themselves and not with the aid of stalls or galas.

Mr T. G. Santon, the chairman of the Bay of Plenty Hospital Board, said in reply that people should take a bigger part in the affairs of the board.

"We are not a cottage industry any more and there is always a struggle with growing children such as us to keep them clothed and fed," he added.

Later at the board meeting he said that he could visualise a memorial plaque or something to that effect being placed outside the theatre after the monitor was installed that it was largely through the efforts of members of the lodge that the equipment had been bought and installed.

NEW SECRET MONITOR CONCLAVE AT THAMES

A new Conclave of Secret Monitors, Thames Conclave, No. 210, was constituted on Saturday, 22nd November, 1969, in the Corinthian Lodge room, Thames.

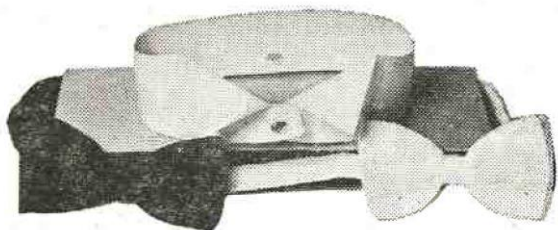

The ceremony of dedication was conducted by R.W. Bro. D. T. Clifton-Lewis, P.D.G.S.R., and was followed by the Installation of V.W. Bro. L. S. Judd as S.R. by R.W. Bro. D. A. Marks, Deputy D.G.S.R. In both these ceremonies, assistance was given by past and present officers of District Grand Conclave.

V.W. Bro. Judd, the first Supreme Ruler of the new Conclave was also a foundation member, and became Supreme Ruler in 1965 of Remuera Conclave, No. 176, Auckland.

The preceding ceremonies were conducted in the afternoon, and the evening's ceremony was the induction into the order of ten brethren.—B.C.M.

HAWKE'S BAY

Lodge Bedford at Waipukurau, chalked up a "first" on Saturday, February 14 of this year. For the first time in Masonic history, the Hawke's Bay Almoners' Association held their quarterly meeting in that progressive Central Hawke's Bay town, and this was at the express invitation of Lodge Bedford, which incidentally, is the third oldest lodge in the Bay.

The occasion was not only an almoners' meeting, but also one of the popular "get-togethers", introduced some three years ago and to which almoners' wives as well as sitting masters and their wives are invited to get together socially.

For this gathering there were about 60 present, including the Prov. Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. Len Webb and his good lady, and actually more than 50 sat down to enjoy a delightful dinner provided by the brethren and ladies of Bedford.

The quarterly meeting of the Association was held in the lodge room, and while this "parliament was in session", the ladies were taken for a tour of central Hawke's Bay, including an interesting break at the museum at Onga Onga, and a call at the home for the disabled, which is still referred to as the "San Hill" at Waipukurau. This home was originally a sanatorium for tuberculosis patients, but is now the home for many cheerful disabled persons, who incidentally, were treated to some luscious Hawke's Bay peaches and apples, a gift from Bro. John Taylor, J.W. of Services Lodge of H.B.

On returning to the lodge room where the almoners had finished their meeting, tongues wagged and acquaintances were renewed and made over the "cup that cheers" (and something a little more potent) and this was followed by a delightfully prepared dinner in the refectory.

The dinner was interspersed with a musical programme arranged by Wor. Bro. "Scotty" Armand, and a toast or two. Wor. Bro. Duncan Hyde, Master of Bedford, welcomed the guests on behalf of his lodge and the reply was made by Wor. Bro. Harry Groome, chairman of the Almoners' Association. He also thanked Bedford for the invitation and congratulated the lodge and their helpers on the really wonderful effort which had been made.

A special toast was honoured, and was proposed by the Prov. Grand Master. This was to Wor. Bro. Ed Culver and his wife who last month celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. In the course of his reply Wor. Bro. Culver mentioned that Wor. Bro. Alex Baines, Lodge Lion almoner, and his wife were to celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary in March this year.

The quarterly meeting resulted in some lively discussion on various topics. One of these was the circular from the Grand Almoner asking for information concerning almoners' activities, and a unanimous decision was reached to the effect that while the great amount of information sought by the Grand Almoner would be desirable, the request covered too comprehensive a field to ensure the information being available with any great degree of accuracy. The secretary was instructed to advise the Grand Almoner that the almoners of Hawke's Bay were doing everything humanly possible for those who required their care.

The meeting also decided to purchase another folding wheel chair which will bring the total to 13 and all of these are in constant use. In fact, it seems almost certain that chair Number 14 will need to be ordered in the near future. —E.H.C.

EXTRACTS FROM HERETAUNGA ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER, No. 38, NEWSLETTER 45, FEBRUARY 1970

Companions . . . we bring you Greetings and Hearty Good Wishes, and trust that 1970, the turn of a new Decade, will bring You and Yours, Health and Happiness throughout the ensuing Year. In looking back on 1969, we have that warm feeling of a successful year of Progress—the Spirit of Fellowship and Companionship is here—in our midst, and our "Z." and "P.Z.s" must reap a feeling of accomplishment when they review the past. Our Chapter can enter 1970 with the knowledge that its foundations have been truly laid—a credit to the Founders, and it is now our privilege to maintain this Edifice in immaculate condition.

December Convocation

Our Christmas Meeting was a most successful one, being very well attended. We felt greatly complimented too, by the attendance of our Grand Supt., R.E. Comp. A. G. A. Jeffery and Grand Chapter Officers, as this time of the Year is an extremely busy one for all. We had also invited Brethren from the various Hastings Craft Lodges to attend our Christmas Meeting and were delighted to greet the large number, 18, who had been able to accept . . . whilst formal business was being completed in the Chapter, our visiting Brethren were being formally welcomed by R.E. Comp. Arthur Port, V.E. Comp. Jack Broomhead, Comps. Eric Jepson and Bruce Craig in the refectory. The formal business being completed and the Chapter suspended, our Visitors were admitted, and being welcomed by our "Z", V.E. Comp. Syd Patterson in a few well chosen words, the Meeting was in the hands of V.E. Comp. Noel Slight who had prepared a paper on "The History of R.A. Masonry". This, Noel had compiled in a very thorough manner, tracing the history of Masonry throughout the building of K.S.T. and then through the centuries which followed—the captivity in Babylon—the return to Jerusalem—the building of the Second Temple, all of which Noel had traced, and quoted extracts from the V.S.L. to substantiate his findings. The research work that had been put into this Paper was very intense and we sincerely congratulate Noel on his effort. In conclusion he explained the pamphlet issued by Grand Chapter regarding the relativity of Craft Lodges and R.A. Chapters—of the 6 degrees in M — 3 in Blue; 3 in Red. Altogether it was a most invigorating, kindly and thought-provoking Lecture—one that can help to bridge that passage of time. At its conclusion questions were asked and answered.

ULSTER LODGE MEMBERS HONOURED 82nd ANNIVERSARY MEETING

The 82nd Anniversary Meeting of Ulster Lodge, No. 62, held in the Masonic Hall, Petone, on January 21st was the occasion of a special double presentation which was made prior to the ceremonial work of the evening—the raising of Bro. James Ian Boyd. As is customary at Ulster's Anniversary meeting the Past Masters of the Lodge filled the officers' chairs with Wor. Bro. A. E. Simpson acting as W.M.

Bro. Peter Wallace, who was initiated in Howick Lodge in Scotland in 1919 joined Ulster Lodge in 1932, and was the recipient of the Fifty Years' Service Badge at the hands of R.W. Bro. H. T. Girdlestone, Provincial Grand Master. In making the presentation he congratulated Bro. Wallace upon receiving the award, and expressed the hope that he would continue to be blessed with good health, and that he would in due time qualify for a bar to the badge.

At the recent Communication held in Christchurch four M.M.s were awarded the Grand Master's Order of Service to Masonry among whom was the present Treasurer of Ulster Lodge. In investing Bro. J. T. Collin with the collar and jewel of the Order R.W. Bro. Girdlestone mentioned that Bro. Collin had been initiated in 1935. Almost immediately he had been invited to assist the late W. Bro. W. H. Melhuish in his secretarial duties and from that time he had served continuously in the offices respectively of Assistant Secretary, Secretary and Treasurer, which office he still filled with distinction, with the exception of the five years during which he served with the 2nd N.Z.E.F. in the Pacific Islands and Italy. In addition to his duties with Ulster Lodge he is the Secretary-Manager of the Petone Masonic Hall Committee.

In making the presentation the Provincial Grand Master stated that the award of the Order of Service to Masonry was a very great distinction, as it was made by the Grand Master himself and was restricted to a total number of twenty members for the whole Dominion, all of whom were M.M.s—the number had diminished of recent years and the latest awards brought the total holders to fifteen. He considered the award to Bro. Collin to be a very fitting recognition of the services which he had rendered in the furtherance of Freemasonry.

The meeting was, very well attended there being in attendance, in addition to the R.W. Prov. G.M., R.W. Bro. H. G. Thom, Past Prov. G.M., V.W. Bro. D. M. Air, President of Board of General Purposes and other Officers of Grand Lodge and the Masters of twelve City and Hutt Valley lodges accompanied by supporting brethren.

In the refectory toasts to Bros. Wallace and Collin were enthusiastically honoured, and they were the recipients of many congratulations. The evening was a very happy one and will be long remembered by all present.—R.W.T.

W. BRO. A. E. LESTER SCANTLEBURY, P.G.O. TRIBUTE DELIVERED AT THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING OF THE MARLBOROUGH LODGE OF UNANIMITY ON 10th FEBRUARY, 1970

It is with a deep feeling of loss that this evening we remember the recent passing of our very beloved W. Brother Lester Scantlebury, affectionately known to his friends as "Scan".

Unfortunately our Brother suffered an illness several years ago which left him partly incapacitated and he has since been unable to attend our meetings. This is a great pity as there will be brethren here this evening who never had the pleasure of meeting him.

Our Brother was initiated in this Lodge in 1922, and was installed as its Worshipful Master in 1929. He was a very gifted musician and was for some years the organist of the Lodge. He was later honoured by Grand Lodge which conferred on him the office of Grand Organist.

It was by his gifts as a musician and his charming personality that he enriched our proceedings and added tremendously to the warmth and companionship within the Lodge. He encouraged and stimulated other latent musical talent in the Lodge and for years we had most enjoyable evenings especially in the refectory and afterwards when it became quite a habit to prolong the evenings sometimes till quite late. I only hope that in the not too distant future this atmosphere will return to the Lodge. It was a golden age in the history of Unanimity.

Our Brother will also be remembered with some amusement as a ritualist. He had an uncanny sense of improvisation. At times his charge obviously lacked preparation but he would go gaily on and it was only those who had done the particular charge who would realise that he had gone astray.

As a lawyer our Brother was a gifted advocate. As such he was prominent throughout his years of practice in this district. He was generous and helpful to his more junior brethren and sometimes encouraged them to think that his case had little merit. As a result one would approach a case with a false sense of security and soon find that the bricks would begin to tumble down on him. However, he was a delightful friend and a delightful enemy.

Our Brother had attributes other than music and the law. As a sportsman he took a keen interest in football and tennis and in 1915 was a member of the N.Z. Army rugby team against England.

Our thoughts and sympathy go out this evening to Mrs. Scantlebury and her young daughter and to our Brother's son Deryk who was initiated in this Lodge in 1948 and who has remained a member although he has resided for many years in Christchurch.

NELSON MASONIC BOWLING TOURNAMENT

In 1968 our keen eyed Wor. Bro. Mason Allen noticed an article in the Craftsman regarding the Auckland Masonic Bowling Tournament. He mentioned this in his own Lodge, Waimea Lodge, and a few keen Bowling Brethren got together and had a Tournament under way and held on 3/2/69. It was a great success and many Brethren found that apart from Masonic qualities, the least expected had Bowling ability also. Ten dollars a four was charged and not a refusal received from a Brother who was free to play on the day. As a result of this Tournament $200 was raised and donations of $100 each was made to Sunnybank Boys' Home and the Whakarewa Home in Nelson. These were considered to be most in need at that time.

On 2/2/70 the Second Tournament was held and if anything perhaps was more successful than the first. We had R. Wor. Bro. H. J. Waters, Prov. G.M. say a few words by way of an Official Opening and after an excellent day's bowling R. Wor. Bro. R. J. Shand Smith, D.G.M., Westland, Nelson E.C., presented the trophies. It was fine and sunny for both the 1969 and 1970 Tournaments and it was greatly appreciated by those present that they were able to meet Brethren elsewhere but in Lodge. Play was open to all Brethren including those unattached, and there were some surprises.

Whilst in Auckland the writer made the effort and met Bro. Harry Morris who organises the Auckland Tournament and he was most helpful with suggestions. He also pointed out the pitfalls so that we are most grateful to Harry.

Wor. Bro. Editor this is not written as a literary gem but only in the hope that other Districts would get into

AN APPRECIATION OF OUR FORMER SECRETARY—THE LATE BRO. R. E. BATES

By G. R. Shearman, Foundation Master of Lodge Takahe, No. 397

When you have known a man for 54 years, when you have lived under the same roof, when you have accepted hospitality in his home, when you have worked closely with him in the business world and in the field of Freemasonry, you feel that you indeed know him.

Such has been my privilege with our former secretary, the late Bro. R. E. Bates, popularity known always, as Bill.

To those who knew him well, in any field of his activities, it is unnecessary to eulogise him. His lifework was spent in highly regarded, Government or quasi-Government positions, where he attained senior status. He was always reasonable and tactful—he engendered and justified implicit confidence. He cheerfully undertook the office of Lodge Secretary, which embraces the most onerous and burden bearing duties of a lodge and he proved to be kind, conscientious and capable.

He was one to whom the burdened heart could look, for consolation and relief. He endeavoured to place men's feet on higher ground. He could make friends—he could not make enemies. Logically his home was typical of his approach to life.

Anonymously he was generous to his lodge. He would have been an excellent master because his first consideration would have been for the sick, the sad, and the stranger within our gate, but on several occasions when he had the opportunity to be considered for warden, he modestly declined.

Now that he has called to the Grand Lodge above, Lodge Takahe and also his mother lodge—Lodge Ara have lost a friend and Freemasonry has lost a worthy brother.

He was elected Grand Steward in 1950 and Grand Director of Ceremonies in 1953. His appointments were Asst. Prov. G.M. in 1959 and Provincial Grand Master in 1960, 1961 and 1962. For many years he was a member of the Board of General Purposes, the Board of Benevolence and a committee member of the Maryhill Masonic Homes project which was opened in 1968. His selfless and devoted labours for all that pertained to the Craft, his many good deeds—the known and anonymous—for the Widows, the Orphans and the Aged will live on.

R.E. Comp. Chalmers was exalted in Celtic Royal Arch Chapter, No. 42 in 1939 and was enthroned First Principal in 1945. He was elected to the office of Chairman of Committee, Supreme Council in the years 1960-61. At the time of his demise he was Representative in N.Z. of the Grand Mark Lodge of India. His loyal and meticulous discharge of his duties, whether ceremonial or administrative, were those of high precept and example.

His genial personality added to the pleasures of our Chapter meetings. The floral decorations he so often provided for the refectory was typical of his love for flowers and giving pleasure to Companions. His labours for the Chapter were of quiet dignity and efficiency. He was possessed of a superb knowledge of the ritual. When we sought his advice his opinions were based on sure foundations.

Both our late Companions took a great interest in Royal Arch Masonry. They worked with vigour and ability—each in his own way—with sustained effort for many years in this branch of Freemasonry. We will remember them with high regard and respect. For us members who are honoured to carry on the traditions of the Chapter it has been our great privilege to have shared our labours with our departed Companions for whom we mourn today.

To the bereaved we extend our deepest sympathy.

As a mark of respect I invite you to stand in silence in memory of the Companions of our former toils.

Rt. W. Bro. James Walker, District Grand Master, Hon. J.G.W., of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, New Zealand South attended Lodge Otago Kilwinning, No. 417, on Thursday, December 11th, 1969 and with the assistance of District Grand Lodge Officers conducted the ceremony of installation of Brother J. O. MacPherson into the C. of K.S. and the investiture of his officers. The District Grand Lodge of England and the District Grand Lodge of Ireland were guests of the evening and as is always the custom with our Scottish Brethren the official guests were Piped into the Lodge room and the newly installed Master had this self same honour conferred on his entry into the refectory.

On Thursday, November 20th, 1969 Brother J. A. Brown, R.W. Master of Lodge Celtic, No. 477 welcomed Rt. W. Bro. Walker and District Grand Lodge Officers for the purpose of installing Brother R. R. Craig into the Chair of K.S. and District Grand Lodges of England and Ireland were received by Bro. Walker. During the evening Bro. Brown was presented with a Past Master's Jewel, which had already been worn by his late Father, by his own Brother E. Brown a well known and respected Past Master of Lodge Celtic. The work in the Lodge was completed when Brother A. R. Rankin, District Grand Secretary for many years was presented with a Jubilee Diploma in recognition of his long association with Scottish Freemasonry in Otago.

On Monday, December 15th, 1969 W. Brother R. J. Barton, W.M. of Lodge Haeremai, No. 155 had the pleasure of welcoming into his Lodge visitors from University Lodge, No. 3666, Hong Kong and Lodge Arawa, California and Lodge Glendora, No. 404 along with many other visitors from Lodges in an around Dunedin. The highlight of the evening was in the refectory when our visitors from overseas gave an interesting and informative reply to the visitors toast of Freemasonry in the respective areas from which they were visitors, and being the last meeting of 1969 special items and entertainment had been arranged which impressed our overseas visitors.
